IMG - Sponsorship Marketing & Multimedia

IMG College and The University of Arizona Department of Intercollegiate Athletics have partnered for a long-term agreement that puts the premier marketing, licensing and media company in the leadership role as administrator for a portion of the UA's media rights.

The new Pac-12 television contract in 2012-13, as well as the August launch of the Pac-12 Networks for national and regional platforms, will put television and Internet-site rights for all Pac-12 schools under one umbrella, as will an agreement between the league, IMG and Learfield Sports to aggregate specific media rights.

Founded in 1960, the New York City- and Cleveland-based global sports media and entertainment company, IMG, directs Arizona's radio networks, publishes printed game programs and produces radio and television coaches' shows. Moreover, its major focus is the administration of the athletics department's entire corporate partnership program with more than 100 outside entities.

IMG acquired Host Communications, the UA media rights partner since 2004, in late 2008. The initial contract with Host began with the 2004 football season, and significantly expanded beginning June 2007 to provide UA with substantial guaranteed revenue through this decade. The rights fee magnitude ranks at the top of the Pac-12 and in the top 10 nationally.

IMG's in-house personnel are quartered in the athletics department's McKale Center.

IMG with Citadel Broadcasting Company, using KCUB 1290-AM in Tucson as the flagship station for originating radio broadcasts, augmented by KCUB's 100,000-watt sister FM station, KHYT 107.5, in Southern Arizona. Additionally, IMG partnered with Lotus' KTKT 990 ESPN Deportes in 2007 to originate Spanish-language radio broadcasts for all football, the majority of men's basketball and selected women's basketball, baseball and softball games.

IMG provides comprehensive sales, affinity marketing, multimedia, promotional and management services to universities, athletics conferences, associations and corporations. IMG represents a broad network of major-college institutions, plus maintains a 34-year relationship with the NCAA for the Final Four and 88 Championship events. Key company operating areas include marketing, association management, publishing, radio and television, and Internet strategies.

Brian Jeffries has served as the voice of the Wildcats in game broadcasts of UA football, basketball and baseball since Arizona's 1986 Aloha Bowl football appearance. He serves as director of broadcasting. In the 2004 season, former UA running back Lamont Lovett began his color analyst career on the football broadcasts. In men's basketball, Jeffries teams with former basketball player Matt Muehlebach for broadcasts.

IMG produced Arizona's local television packages for football and men's basketball, partnering with FS Arizona, from 2004-2011. Arizona Athletics had worked with the Fox Sports Net regional affiliate FS Arizona for the past 11 years.

ArizonaWildcats.com is a comprehensive Internet site for Wildcat sports news, and offers premium content radio streaming packages for most football, men's and women's basketball and baseball game broadcasts, along with various video features and other specialty audiovisual and interactive information such as soccer, gymnastics, volleyball and softball game video streams. UA's collaboration with CBS College Sports Network began for a second partnership in summer 2008 and the Pac-12 will determine future affiliations for web hosting.

Media Policies and Procedures

Media Information

The Arizona Athletics Communication Services office will assist media throughout the season in its coverage of Arizona football including issuing a weekly news release, daily news items, home game statistical packages, administering news conferences, practice and press box operations, credentialing and road-game access, among other services. Any questions about media policies should be directed to Associate Director of Communication Services Molly O'Mara at momara@arizona.edu or (520) 621-4283 or (520) 444-1068.

Practice

Coverage of football practice stipulates consent with restrictions on reporting formations, strategies, special personnel shifts or injuries without prior questions directed to and answered by head coach Rich Rodriguez.

Credentials

Credentials will be issued to professional members of media outlets that regularly cover Arizona Athletics and to regional, national or visiting professional journalists. Internet entities may or may not qualify for credentials and will be considered on a case-by-case basis.

Usage

Usage of imagery, audio and video taken at UA athletics events is restricted to editorial purposes; these guidelines are covered in materials issued to reporters, editors and photographers upon receipt of credentials and/or access. They include guidelines on live Internet reporting, notably live description of statistical and/or play-by-play and uses of visual imagery, rules strengthened for televised games.

Facilities Access for Media

The team locker room, sports medicine center and strength and conditioning center are off limits to media unless special arrangements have been made through the Communication Services office.

Rich Rodriguez

One way to look at the new Arizona program is to say the Wildcats return zero starters for 2012. Not that there aren't quality and experienced Pac-12 players on the roster, but head coach Rich Rodriguez opened the door for any and all to buy into his system and earn a role. Spring ball was all about program-wide tryouts, in a sense.

The good news is that his insistence on championship-level thinking and practice habits has been effective. More than a few positions should be strong ones for the Cats in 2012, and notably because the no depth-chart early work has produced dozens of hungry Arizona players.

Rodriguez brought one special thing with him when Arizona AD Greg Byrne was able to grab him before others did – outstanding head-coaching experience, 18 years' worth. Rodriguez has a detailed-driven program and a total plan.

It will show in 2012.

What will be evident is threefold. Arizona will play at a furious pace, it will play in a physically relentless fashion, and it will play as group of superbly conditioned athletes.

The latter came with considerable goading. The 4-8 Cats of 2011 finished work in late November after losing their head coach seven weeks earlier. No bowl and no full 2012 coaching staff until after the first of the year put the Wildcats in limbo for long enough to be out of shape by the time spring practice began. It wasn't pretty for the first half of those sessions.

"We will be the best-conditioned team in the country," Rodriguez has told the players, repeatedly, but it took a while for the meaning to grab hold. Toward the end of spring ball, Arizona started to not only know the new spread-option offense and 3-3-5 defense, but play with some heated abandon, built of better-conditioned bodies and minds. It still progresses.

The deconstruction of Arizona football took several months, and the building of Arizona under Rodriguez will take some time but the Cats will be different and growing in 2012, even as their new $73 million football facility grows beyond their northern view in Arizona Stadium.

That structure will house the physical attributes of Rodriguez's Arizona program, and further enable his focus on changing the culture of Wildcat football. He's a demanding coach, but also willing to fight for his charges to provide them with championship amenities.

To say Arizona has turned a corner without playing a game takes some trust, yet with Rodriguez at the forefront, you better believe it.

The coach and his staff – a band of brothers re-assembled for a new purpose – can recruit, coach and design offenses and defenses. They're largely back together in the desert for a western iteration of what they proved at Glenville State, West Virginia and Michigan. It's clearly one of Arizona's story lines for 2012.

Rodriguez got his coordinators of choice, Calvin Magee on offense and Jeff Casteel on defense, and fleshed out the staff with many other familiar faces in guys who know his program. It helped immediately in spring ball with everyone pulling the rope in the same direction, to use a Rodriguez catch phrase.

New strength and conditioning coaches – also familiar – took charge in January, beginning the necessary physical transformation of players that Rodriguez's game and practice paces dictate.

It's all helped give the Wildcats cohesive leadership and an opportunity to start with clean slates.

Matt Scott

Offensively, UA brings backs its starting front, a fifth-year quarterback with Pac-12 experience, a strong group of running backs and enough receiving skill to complement the system. That will mean a shift from recent years when UA threw the ball 63 percent of the time.

Quarterback Matt Scott is 5-1 as the starter of record in his career backing Willie Tuitama and Nick Foles. His biggest asset for UA is that his games were marked by unpredictability – good team rushing efforts and big-play passing. He can run and will enjoy the plays designed for that, but has six backs that can do the same and a good arm.

The staff used junior slot receiver Richard Morrison, a prep QB, to back Scott in spring practice but also spread the wealth with walk-on Alex Cappellini, plus bringing in three scholarship players in August, one a junior college transfer (B.J. Denker). The situation at quarterback will be more than sufficient.

Senior center Kyle Quinn leads the returning line, although injuries and a suspension kept sophomore tackles Mickey Baucus and Fabbians Ebbele out of spring ball. What came of that was more depth, with some cross training and good work by junior guard Chris Putton, senior guards Trace Biskin, Shane Zink and Addison Bachman, sophomore tackle Trent Spurgeon, junior tackle Eric Bender-Ramsay and three redshirt freshmen – Jacob Arzouman, Lene Maiava and Faitele Faafoi. Two others, Jack Baucus and Carter Lees, were on conditioning-only orders in the spring after offseason surgery along with Mickey Baucus. The entire line was new in 2011, and turned in a commendable body of work, so finding a group there won't be difficult.

At running back, senior Taimi Tutogi (6-1, 260) and sophomore Ka'Deem Carey (5-10, 203) lend some size to a group complemented by Daniel Jenkins (5-9, 195), Kylan Butler (5-7, 186) and Jared Baker (5-8, 192). Greg Nwoko (6-1, 237) missed last year with a knee injury and also is back for his senior year. Physical play – at this or any position – will determine who gets the time. It's a solid crew.

Catching the ball could focus on any of a reputable group including senior Dan Buckner, junior Morrison, sophomores Tyler Slavin, Austin Hill and Garic Wharton, senior Terrence Miller and redshirt freshman David Richards, plus tight ends in Drew Robinson (senior) and Michael Cooper (sophomore). There's good size on the outside and inside. How much the Cats throw the ball is a question Rodriguez and coordinator Calvin Magee will answer, but UA has the tools.

Shaquille Richardson

Coordinator Jeff Casteel's focus on defense will be bringing everyone up to speed on the 3-3-5 system. Toward the end of spring ball, the unit was playing with more ease and speed under the new alignments than it was at the start.

With five defensive backs in the normal base, UA may not look a lot different than it did in previous seasons with the heavy use of nickel backs, but the stack defense has an emphasis on versatility, deception and speed.

Blitzes can come from anywhere. You can disguise into standard looks. With additional faster players on the field, you can drop an unexpected guy in coverage. You can blitz off the corner and still acquire the receiver in a zone. You can mix the gaps up front to confuse blocking schemes. The linebackers move around. Two safeties are making adjustments.

Arizona's players found the system to their liking, despite a learning curve that's still under way. The good news is that a lot of guys got a solid taste, especially with UA coaches holding auditions throughout spring and until the September 1 opener.

Arizona will look to junior linebacker Jake Fischer for much of its defensive leadership. He's back and 100 percent healthy after missing 2011 while rehabilitating a knee injury. He and junior cornerback Shaquille Richardson, junior safety Marquis Flowers and junior linemen Sione Tuihalamaka and Justin Washington have the most experience, and fit nicely in the 3-3-5.

Fischer had 58 tackles as a sophomore eight-game starter, and played as a true freshman in 2009. He, sophomores Hank Hobson and Rob Hankins, and mid-year freshman C.J. Dozier enter fall camp with the best opportunities among the linebacking corps, which also will see a quick evaluation for true freshman Dakota Conwell.

At safety, sophomore letterman Tra'Mayne Bondurant joins Flowers as a Pac-12-experienced guy, but walk-on freshman Vince Miles had a solid spring along with senior Mark Watley and sophomore lettermen Jared Tevis and Blake Brady. The Cats also will give an early test to sophomore Jourdon Grandon, who missed spring ball for an off-the-field issue. He had four nickel starts as a true freshman in 2011.

Richardson and junior letterman Derrick Rainey will have to fight off sophomore Jonathan McKnight, likely UA's best cover corner entering 2011, but he missed the year with a knee injury. He was limited in spring but participated enough to show he'll be given top consideration in August.

Up front, Arizona has some depth, albeit young. The new system's one-tackle alignment gave a dozen guys work at all three spots in spring. Five guys have a chance to start at the end positions – Washington, sophomores Dan Pettinato, Reggie Gilbert and Kirifi Taula, and senior Jowyn Ward. Tuihalamaka and senior Chris Merrill were tabbed leaders at the nose. The former has 14 starts, while Washington is the leader on defense with 15 career starts at tackle or end.

Whatever Arizona's starting 11 looks like in September, the strength and conditioning program instituted by Rodriguez and strength and conditioning coach Chris Allen will make a difference. Arizona is lifting weights with 100 percent participation, and now with 100 percent accountability. One doesn't go through the motions with Allen's staff and there's a lot more running.

It will manifest itself on the field and no more visibly than swarming the ball on defense. The Wildcats looked more like Desert Swarmera flyers than at any time since. Relentless is a good word.

John Bonano

Arizona's special teams also got a serious makeover in 2012, notably because all position coaches have a piece of responsibility and two coaches – Spencer Leftwich and Tony Gibson – have duties as special teams coordinators.

Arizona has had some special teams success in the past decade, but mostly individually based.

It hasn't blocked kicks (or gone after any) with any frequency. It's had some big returns but not consistently. It's missed PAT kicks when it mattered. It's broken down on kick coverage too often.

Gone are the afterthought special teams drills in practice. Rodriguez's 18-year tenure as a head coach has made him particularly attentive to the possibilities afforded by kicking units, and there are moving pieces touched on throughout practice.

The Cats bring back some kickers of note. Placekicker John Bonano and punter Kyle Dugandzic each have performed in the past and consistency will be their ticket to more opportunities.

Bonano, the kickoff guy for 32 games, took over PAT chores after six games in 2011 and made all the rest of his tries after UA opened with five misses in five games. He kicked eight of 12 field goals after the other guys went 2-for-6. He's a solid bet but was pushed hard by transfer Jake Smith in spring ball.

Dugandzic, too, got some push from redshirt freshman Drew Riggleman in spring ball but also has a full year of game experience and an individual average of 46.0 on 40 punts. The average was the second-best in UA history but the Cats were hurt by two blocks and a bad snap, and some coverage that reduced the net punting to last in the league. It could easily have been No. 2 without the miscues and they'll get coached.

In the return game, incoming freshmen should have a chance to help out Richard Morrison (PR/KOR), Jonathan McKnight (PR) or Kylan Butler (KOR), based on speed. Those guys have it and Leftwich will make sure the guys in the opener have sure hands and break-away potential. The 10 other guys on return teams also will be well coached.

With the excitement of a new head coach, a $72 million football facility being erected in sight and eight home games, UA's schedule affords some first-year opportunities for Rodriguez.

The road trips are tough – to Oregon, Stanford, UCLA and Utah – but taking care of business at home can help Arizona put together an inaugural season under the new guy that should re-energize the faithful and mark Arizona as a contender.

Rich Rodriguez, Head Coach

Year in Coaching: 28th
Years at Arizona: First

Rich Rodriguez was introduced as the 30th head coach of the University of Arizona football program on Nov. 22, 2011, ending a stint as a sports television commentator to return to an 18-year head coaching career.

"We looked far and wide for our next coach and found what we were looking for in Rich Rodriguez," said UA Director of Athletics Greg Byrne. "He's a talented, proven leader with outstanding success at the top level of college football."

Rodriguez was most recently head coach at Michigan from 2008 to 2010 and made a Division I statement as head coach at West Virginia from 2001-07 where he compiled a 60-26 record and won four Big East Conference titles. He has served as a football analyst for CBS Sports during the 2011 season.

"I'm eager to get back to coaching and look forward to becoming part of the Arizona family," Rodriguez said. "It's a great opportunity for me and I believe that outstanding success is on the horizon for Arizona football."

Rodriguez carries a career college coaching record of 120-84-2 in 18 seasons, marked by Division I records of 60-26 at West Virginia and 15-22 at Michigan. He began his head coaching career at Salem (W.Va.) University in 1988 and then coached at Glenville State (W.Va.) from 1990-96.

Rodriguez's West Virginia teams were Big East Champions in 2003, 2004, 2005 and 2007 while appearing in two BCS bowls, the 2005 Sugar Bowl with a victory over Georgia for an 11-1 record and a victory over Oklahoma in the 2007 Fiesta Bowl to finish 10-2 shortly after Rodriguez had left for Michigan. His 2006 club finished 11-2 after a victory over Georgia Tech in the Gator Bowl. He also coached the Mountaineers to the 2002 Continental Tire Bowl and the 2003 and 2004 Gator Bowl.

While at Salem, he was a secondary coach and special teams coordinator in 1986 and assistant head coach and defensive coordinator in 1987. He was the youngest head coach in college football when appointed by Salem in 1988 at age 24. The school disbanded its football program the next year and he served as a volunteer assistant at West Virginia working with outside linebackers in 1989.

Prior to accepting the West Virginia job in late November 2000, Rodriguez served as offensive coordinator and associate head coach for Tommy Bowden at Clemson in 1999 and 2000, with the Tigers recording a 15-9 record in two seasons. He was offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach for Bowden at Tulane for two years prior to that, 1997-98, where he helped lead the Green Wave to a19-4 mark, including an undefeated 12-0 season with the Conference USA Champs and Liberty Bowl victors in 1998.

At Glenville State, his teams won or shared four-consecutive West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference titles and he was named WVIAC Coach of the Year in 1993 and 1994, as well as the NAIA Coach of the Year after leading his team to a national runner-up finish. He also was recognized by the West Virginia Sports Writers Association as the state College Coach of the Year for all sports in 1993. He led the Pioneers to the national playoffs twice and posted a 43-28-2 record. He also served as Glenville's AD in 1995-96 and was inducted into its Hall of Fame in 2003.

Rodriguez graduated from West Virginia in 1986, where he started as a walk-on in 1981 and became a three-year letterwinner as a defensive back from 1982-84. He added a master's degree from Salem in 1987. He is a native of Grant Town, W. Va., and graduated from North Marion High School. Rich and his wife, Rita, have two children, Raquel and Rhett.

Calvin Magee, Associate Head Coach/ Co-Offensive Coordinator/Running Backs

Year in Coaching: 23rd
Year at Arizona: First

Magee joined the Arizona staff on Dec. 7, 2011 as Arizona's associate head coach, co-offensive coordinator and running backs coach. He's been a successful coordinator of spread-option running attacks for head coach Rich Rodriguez at a number of stops.

During the 2011 season, he served as assistant head coach and co-offensive coordinator at Pittsburgh. With more than 20 years in coaching, he has been on the sidelines for eight bowl games.

Magee coached for Rodriguez for three years at Michigan (2008-10) and for seven years at West Virginia (2001-07). He was associate head coach, offensive coordinator and running backs coach at Michigan, and coached running backs throughout his tenure in Morgantown while adding the coordinator post his final three seasons and assistant head coach his last year at West Virginia.

Magee was an All-American tight end at Southern University, earning first-team honors in 1983 and 1984. He led the Jaguars each of his four seasons (1981-84) and was MVP of the 1985 Freedom Bowl. He was a three-time All-Southwestern Athletic Conference selection. He was inducted into the Southern University Hall of Fame in 2000.

Following his playing tenure at Southern, he had a five-year stint in the National Football League with the Tampa Bay Buccaneers (1985-89).

He began his college coaching career at South Florida where he coached tight ends (1996), running backs (1999-00) and served as running game coordinator those final two years.

A native of New Orleans, Magee earned a bachelor's degree from South Florida in 1990. He and his wife, Rosie, have two daughters, Jade and Jasmine, and a son, Bryson.

Rod Smith, Co-Offensive Coordinator/Quarterbacks

Year in Coaching: 16th
Year at Arizona: First

University of Arizona head coach Rich Rodriguez added Rod Smith to his staff in December 2011 as co-offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach, bringing the former colleague from the staff at Indiana where he held the same post under Kevin Wilson in 2011.

Smith coached quarterbacks under Rodriguez at Michigan from 2008 to 2010 and one season under Rodriguez at West Virginia in 2007. He helped develop two of the most explosive signal callers in Rodriguez' offensive system, WVU's Pat White and Michigan's Denard Robinson. Additionally, he has coached in four bowl games.

Smith was offensive coordinator and quarterbacks coach at South Florida in 2005 and 2006 after starting on the staff there as passing game coordinator and quarterbacks coach in 2001.

He played under Rodriguez as a quarterback at Glenville State from 1993-96, where he earned his undergraduate degree in 1997. He was an All-American and team captain his senior year.

Smith began his coaching career as offensive coordinator at Franklin High School in West Virginia (1997) before joining the college ranks as offensive coordinator at Urbana (Ohio) University (1998-99) and offensive coordinator at West Virginia Tech (2000).

He also spent time as a graduate assistant at Clemson in 2001 working with offensive coordinator Rodriguez and relocated with Rodriguez as a graduate assistant member of the coach's initial staff at WVU for a few months before taking a fulltime position at USF.

Smith received a master's degree from Urbana University (Ohio) in 2000. He and his wife, Charlene, have a son, Alex, and a daughter, Sasha.

Jeff Casteel
Defensive Coordinator/Linebackers

Year in Coaching: 29th
Year at Arizona: First

Veteran defensive coordinator Jeff Casteel was appointed to take over Arizona's defense on Jan. 11, 2012. He'll also coach linebackers in the second level of UA's scheme.

He has more than 25 years of coaching experience and was Rivals' 2007 Defensive Coordinator of the Year and its 2008 Big East Coordinator of the Year. He has coached in 11 bowl games.

Casteel was defensive coordinator and linebackers coach at West Virginia during the2003-11 seasons and spent the 2002 season in Morgantown as co-coordinator. He worked with the defensive line at WVU in 2001 and as defensive ends coach at UTEP in 2000.

His multiple spread defense, the 3-3-5, normally uses three down linemen and at times up to half a dozen defensive backs. His 2011 version helped the Mountaineers contain a potent Clemson offense and beat the Tigers, 70-33, in the 2012 Orange Bowl, with four turnovers gained, one for a score.

Among some of Casteel's noteworthy defenses at WVU were units that were No. 4 nationally in turnover margin in 2003; No. 7 nationally in turnover margin and No. 15 in total defense in 2005; best in the Big East and No. 13 nationally in rushing defense and 25th in turnover margin in 2006; No. 7 in total defense, No. 8 in scoring defense, No. 9 in turnover margin and top-20 marks in sacks and rushing defense in 2007; No. 11 in scoring defense and top-20 marks in turnover margin and pass efficiency defense in 2008; and No. 3 nationally in total defense in 2010.

He began his coaching career at California University in Pennsylvania as a graduate assistant from 1984-86, and then coached the defensive line at Palmetto High School in Miami, Fla., for a year.

He was the defensive line and strength coach at Shepherd University in Shepherdstown, W. Va., in 1989 and 1990 and assistant head coach and defensive coordinator from 1991 to 1999 at Shepherd before moving to Division I football at UTEP.

Shepherd teams won West Virginia Intercollegiate Athletic Conference titles six times while he was assistant head coach. He was part of a WVU staff that led the Mountaineers to an average of 10 victories per season from 2006-11, two of those under Rich Rodriguez.

Casteel and his wife, Rosemary, have two children, Jacob and Sarah. He holds bachelor's and master's degrees from California University (Pa.).

Tony Gibson, Assistant Head Coach/
Safeties/Def. Special Teams Coordinator

Year in Coaching: 18th
Year at Arizona: First

Tony Gibson, who has built relationships with Rich Rodriguez both as a player and coach, joined the staff on Dec. 7, 2011 as assistant head coach charged with Arizona's safeties and as defensive special teams coordinator. He spent the 2011 season as secondary coach and pass defense coordinator at Pittsburgh.

His position assignment in the UA's defensive backfield will involve working with safeties in the 3-3-5 system. He also will coordinate defensive special teams, spearheading the kickoff coverage and punt block/return units. Gibson coached on teams that played in eight bowl games.

Gibson served as assistant head coach and defensive backs coach at Michigan under Rodriguez from 2008-10, serving as special teams coordinator the final season.

He coached defensive backs under Rodriguez from 2001 to 2007 at West Virginia, and was recruiting coordinator his final season in Morgantown.

Gibson began his career at Glenville State under Rodriguez in 1996, coaching defensive backs, coached defensive backs and was special teams and recruiting coordinator at Cumberland University in Tennessee in 1997 and 1998, and was assistant head coach and defensive coordinator at West Virginia Tech for two years (1999-00) before joining Rodriguez again at West Virginia.

Matt Dudek, Director of On-Campus Recruiting and Player Personnel

Year in College Athletics: Seventh
Year at Arizona: First

Matt Dudek joined Rich Rodriguez's staff in December 2011 and serves as Director of On-Campus Recruiting and Player Personnel. He provides considerable focus to on-campus recruiting, including the planning and details for visits by prospective student-athletes, in addition to his work with the players and personnel duties. He also works closely with the coaches in the operational end of their recruiting efforts.

With a stellar reputation as one of the nation's top recruiting coordinators, Dudek's resume boasts four top-25 ranked recruiting classes during his tenure at Pittsburgh. In just a short time, he helped put together a talented 2012 class for Arizona's national signing day last February.

Dudek was the Director of Football Branding and Events at Rutgers University for the 2011 season, and the Assistant Director of Football Operations and Recruiting Coordinator at Pittsburgh for several years prior.

Also at Pittsburgh, he worked as an academic counselor with the football, women's tennis and gymnastics teams. He served as the Disability Resource Services liaison and the Continuing Eligibility Certification representative. Dudek was familiar with the football program prior to joining the academic staff as he spent two years as a video graduate assistant for the Panthers.

He is a 2003 graduate of the University of Pittsburgh. In 2008, Dudek earned his M. Ed. in Instruction and Learning, graduating summa cum laude. He earned his Pennsylvania Instructional Certification in Secondary Social Studies Education in 2007. He graduated from South Allegheny High School, near McKeesport, in the greater Pittsburgh area.

Dudek and his wife, Lindsay, have daughters Abby and twins Giuliana and Camella.

2011 Season in Review

Game 1: Arizona 41, Northern Arizona 10 (FS Arizona)
Sept. 3, 2011 – Arizona Stadium – Attendance: 51,761
Kickoff: 7 p.m. – Time of Game: 2:56 – Weather: 95, clear

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) – Nick Foles threw for 412 yards and had three of his five touchdown passes in third quarter, helping Arizona shake off a first-half funk to open the season with a 41-10 win over Northern Arizona Saturday night. The Wildcats flew around the field while building a 14-0 lead in the first quarter, then went stagnant in the second, allowing the FCS Lumberjacks to get within four points. Keyed by Trevin Wade's interception, Arizona pulled away in the third quarter on touchdown passes from Foles to Keola Antolin, Richard Morrison and Austin Hill. Juron Criner also caught a TD pass, finishing with six catches for 151 yards. Foles was 34 for 42 passing. NAU's Cary Grossart threw for 179 yards on 20 of 26 passing. Zach Bauman ran for 99 yards on 27 carries. Foles opened by hitting Criner on a 42-yard play-action pass, then floated in a 10-yard touchdown pass to him in the corner of the end zone two plays later. Arizona kept rolling, Taimi Tutogi making it 14-0 in the closing seconds of the first quarter on a 5-yard TD run through a huge hole off right tackle. Matt Myers hit a 28-yard field goal midway through the second quarter, and Grossart found Khalil Paden on a 12-yard touchdown pass in the closing seconds of the half, getting NAU within 14-10. Wade's interception jolted the Wildcats in the second half, making a pick at the 12-yard line, and Antolin scored on a swing pass the next play. Morrison followed with a 24-yard touchdown reception from Foles across the middle, and Hill all but sealed it with his first career catch, a 24-yard TD that Arizona up 34-10. Arizona's defense was just as dominant, holding Northern Arizona to 25 yards in the third quarter and no points in the second half.

STILLWATER, Okla. (AP) – Brandon Weeden connected with Justin Blackmon on two short touchdown tosses, Joseph Randle ran for two scores and No. 9 Oklahoma State used an early burst of offense to beat Arizona 37-14 in a rematch of the 2010 Alamo Bowl. The Cowboys (2-0) scored on their first three drives to open a 21-0 lead in the first 16 1/2 minutes, then put it away with two scores midway through the second half. Randle had 121 yards rushing and nine catches for 99 yards, and Blackmon had 128 yards on 12 receptions to extend his NCAA record streak to 14 straight games with at least 100 yards receiving. Weeden, who completed 19 of his first 20, finished with 397 yards passing, one less than Arizona's Nick Foles, in a passing duel between the nation's top two passers from the first week of the season. The Wildcats (1-1) played without Juron Criner, who had an appendectomy five days prior. But Foles flung it around without many issues. Texas transfer Dan Buckner had 10 catches for 142 yards, including a 54-yarder for a touchdown, and Austin Hill had 128 yards on eight receptions. Keola Antonin had just 22 yards on 13 carries, including a 1-yard touchdown run during a stretch when Arizona made five straight defensive stops to give itself a chance. Oklahoma State flipped the field when punter Quinn Sharp took off for a 23-yard gain on a fake, and the Wildcats then got in their own way with a series of penalties that backed them up to their own 1-yard line before punting it back. Weeden capitalized on the short field by feeding Blackmon on four straight plays, the last one a 3-yard fade pattern to the right side of the end zone. Randle highlighted the Cowboys' next drive by coming out of the backfield to catch a 63-yard flip over the middle and set up Jeremy Smith's 6-yard TD run that made it 34-7 early in the fourth quarter.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) – Andrew Luck threw for 325 yards to help No. 6 Stanford pull away for a 37-10 victory over Arizona in the Pac-12 opener for both teams. SU struggled to find the end zone in the first half, then wore Arizona down in the second. Luck completed 20-of-31 passes, throwing touchdown passes to Zach Ertz in the third quarter and Levine Toilolo in the fourth. Stepfan Taylor added a career-high 153 yards rushing and Stanford had a balanced 567 yards to win its 11th straight game. Nick Foles threw for 239 yards and a touchdown, but UA couldn't find balance with only 51 rushing yards. Arizona again had trouble running the ball - minus-6 yards on 10 carries in the first half - but Foles made up for it, completing his first 17 passes while throwing for 198 yards and a touchdown. The score went on a 6-yard pass to Juron Criner, who showed no ill affects from the appendectomy that kept him out of the previous game at Oklahoma State. The Wildcats kept it close, but could have been closer: Jaime Salazar missed field goals to end the second quarter and start the third, making him 1-for-4 on the season after Arizona was haunted by missed kicks a year ago. Meantime, Jordan Williamson hit three field goals for the Cardinal. Stanford kept UA off the board in the second half and closed it out with a drive that took nearly seven minutes, capped by Jeremy Stewart's 2-yard TD run.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) – Oregon's LaMichael James kept zipping and zagging through the Arizona defense for a school-record 288 rushing yards and a pair of scores in the No. 10 Ducks' 56-31 victory over Arizona. UO won its 13th consecutive conference game, blowing open a 35-3 lead and then holding off a Wildcats rally before pulling away again. All but the last of the Ducks' seven touchdown drives lasted less than three minutes. Darron Thomas passed for two scores and ran for two more. Nick Foles completed 33 of 55 passes for 391 yards and three touchdowns for the Wildcats, who dropped to 1-3 with all three losses coming against top 10 teams. James, who also had a 51-yard punt return, averaged 12.2 yards per carry in his second consecutive and fifth career 200-yard rushing game. He broke Oregon's single-game rushing record of 257 yards by Ontario Smith against Washington State in 2001. The Ducks amassed 516 yards, 415 on the ground. Foles led the Wildcats to three consecutive touchdowns. His 7-yard pass to David Roberts, and 2-point conversion toss to David Douglas, cut Oregon's lead to 35-24 with 3:14 to go in the third quarter. But the Ducks simply zipped to another score. James had a 31-yard run, and Thomas went the final 5 yards for the touchdown.

LOS ANGELES (AP) – Matt Barkley passed for a school-record 468 yards and four touchdowns, Robert Woods made 14 catches for 255 yards and two scores, and Southern California outlasted Arizona 48-41. Freshmen Marqise Lee and Xavier Grimble caught TD passes from Barkley, who also rushed for a score while breaking Carson Palmer's 2002 yardage record with a blistering performance against Arizona's maligned defense. The Trojans needed almost every yard against Arizona's Nick Foles, who passed for 425 yards and four TDs of his own. USC outgained Arizona 582-554 in a game largely devoid of defense. Ka'Deem Carey rushed for two touchdowns and caught another scoring pass for the Wildcats. Barkley went 32 for 39 with one interception. Keola Antolin rushed for 87 yards for Arizona, which lost four straight despite its prolific offense. UA got in a 21-0 hole and climbed out, but couldn't get over the top. The teams scored on 10 of 11 consecutive possessions from the 2nd quarter to part way in the fourth. Foles went 41 for 53, but threw two drive-killing interceptions to T.J. McDonald in the first half that allowed USC to pull away with a 27-12 halftime lead. UA's offense also moved the ball easily against USC, punting just once in the first three quarters. Austin Hill caught a 4-yard TD pass from Foles with 1 minute to play, but McDonald recovered an onside kick to seal it.

CORVALLIS, Ore. – Sean Mannion threw for 267 yards and two touchdowns and Oregon State defeated the mistake-prone Arizona Wildcats 37-27 in what turned out to be Mike Stoops' last game as UA head coach. Nick Foles was intercepted twice and the Wildcats (1-5, 0-3 Pac-12) lost two fumbles in their fifth straight loss overall and eighth straight conference loss. Oregon State (1-4, 1-2) led 27-6 at halftime and nearly squandered it but held on to snap a six-game losing streak dating to last season. With only a narrow 30-27 lead and 5:22 left, Oregon State went for it on fourth-and-2 -- succeeding when Mannion hit diving tight end Joe Halahuni for the touchdown. The Beavers made a crucial stand on the other end when the Wildcats also took a chance on fourth down with two yards to go, and Dan Buckner couldn't catch Foles' pass in the end zone. Foles completed 31 of 45 passes for 378 yards and a touchdown to Buckner, who caught eight passes for 144 yards. Mannion, a redshirt freshman who didn't become the Beavers' official starter until the third game of the season, completed 32 of 41 passes. The Beavers went up on Jovan Stevenson's 1-yard touchdown run, then extended it in the second quarter when Clayton York blocked an Arizona punt and ran the ball back for a score. Arizona running back Daniel Jenkins fumbled on Arizona's first drive of the second half and Beavers safety Lance Mitchell recovered, before the Beavers went up 30-6 on Romaine's 20-yard field goal.

TUCSON, Ariz. – Tim Kish had a simple message for his players since taking over for Mike Stoops: Have fun. The Wildcats did just that with an emotional victory, giving their interim coach a victory in his first game while sending UCLA's coach possibly closer to losing his job.

Dusting off an aggressive defensive scheme and relying on a recharged running game to complement Nick Foles' passing, Arizona ran over the Bruins 48-12. Foles threw for 291 yards and connected with Juron Criner for three touchdown passes. The running game, dormant all season, came to life, churning out 254 of Arizona's season-high 573 yards and three touchdowns -- two by Taimi Tutogi. The defense, another sore spot under Stoops, was just as good behind a throwback scheme called the "Double Eagle Flex," an aggressive front designed to clog up lanes against good running teams. The combination allowed the Wildcats to score on six first-half drives for a 35-point lead and cruise, ending a five-game losing streak. One of the nation's best rushing teams, UCLA had 37 yards on 25 carries against a team that was 100th in the nation at 196 yards per game. Kevin Prince was mostly ineffective in his return to the starting lineup, hitting 17 of 35 passes for 286 yards and a touchdown. Frustration boiled over in the closing seconds of the first half, when a wild brawl spread about 60 yards across the field after a streaker dressed like an official ran onto the field. Keola Antolin ran for 77 yards on just eight carries, freshman Ka'Deem Carey had an 18-yard TD run and Criner finished with 10 catches for 101 yards to give Arizona its first win over an FBS opponent since beating UCLA 29-21 last Oct. 30 in Pasadena.

SEATTLE – Chris Polk scored five touchdowns and became the first player in Washington history with 100 yards rushing and receiving in a game as the Huskies rallied for a 42-31 over Arizona on Saturday night. Washington (6-2, 4-1 Pac-12) withstood another crazy play in the series with the Wildcats - a bobbled pass that was intercepted and returned 91 yards for a touchdown by UA safety Robert Golden - and became bowl eligible for the second straight season. Polk finished with 144 yards rushing on 34 carries and 100 yards receiving. He scored on touchdown runs of 1, 1, 5 and 2 yards and had a 17-yard TD reception from Keith Price. Polk's 5-yard scamper with 8:21 left gave Washington the lead, and he pushed the advantage to 11 with 3:59 left when he high-stepped in from the 2. Nick Foles threw for 388 yards for the Wildcats (2-6, 1-5) but couldn't do enough to counter Polk's monster night. Foles finished 32 of 50 passing, and receiver Juron Criner had 11 catches for 118 yards and touchdowns of 24 and 9 yards.But any Arizona rally and hope of a second straight win under interim coach Tim Kish was dashed when Sean Parker picked off Foles at the Washington 20 with 2:10 left. Foles was intercepted for a third time with 29 seconds left by Washington's Cort Dennison. It wasn't the sharpest night for Price, who didn't get much help from his receivers at times. Price was 16 of 30 for 277 yards and a TD. He threw a career-high three interceptions, one deflected out of the receiver's hands and into the arms of Golden who wove through Washington's offensive personnel for a 91-yard interception return for a touchdown. UA carved up Washington's struggling defense for 424 total yards and opened the game with a 10-0 lead but couldn't hang on.

TUCSON, Ariz. (AP) – John Hays threw for 199 yards and a pair of touchdowns, and Utah's defense hounded Arizona quarterback Nick Foles into a pair of big mistakes en route to a 34-21 win over the Wildcats on Saturday. Hays connected on 12 of 21 passes and John White added 109 yards and a pair of touchdowns on the ground. The Wildcats had trouble protecting Foles and had some ugly miscues on special teams in the first half, including two blocked punts and a badly botched fake field goal. Foles hit 25 of 43 passes for 326 yards and had a pair of touchdown passes to David Douglas, but threw two interceptions, including one in the end zone with the Wildcats on Utah's 2-yard line in the fourth quarter. Douglas finished with 10 catches for a career-high 156 yards. The Utes forced an interception in the second quarter by getting to Foles, who threw off-balance and Utah linebacker Matt Martinez made a diving grab at Arizona's 30-yard line. White scored four plays later on an 18-yard run off of the left tackle to put Utah up 17-0. Utah had sustained success on special teams, too, breaking through to block two punts in the first half. Hays also opened the second half with a 44-yard touchdown pass to Reggie Dunn after Arizona cornerback Lyle Brown slipped, putting the Utes up 27-7. Foles hit Douglas again late in the third quarter, throwing on the run for a 42-yard touchdown that cut Utah's lead to 27-14. Foles again had the Wildcats driving midway through the fourth quarter, but his lazy fade pass in the end zone from the 2-yard line was picked off by Utah's Conroy Black, who returned it across midfield. White followed with an 11-yard score to put the game out of reach.

Game 10 - Colorado 48, Arizona 29 (FCS Pacific)
Nov. 12, 2011 – Boulder, Colo. – Attendance: 48,111
Start: 12:41 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:22 – Weather: 57, Gusty Winds

BOULDER, Colo. – Rodney Stewart ran for 181 yards and three touchdowns and threw for another, helping Colorado to a 48-29 win over Arizona. Tyler Hansen threw two TD passes and hauled in Stewart's touchdown toss on a flea-flicker as the Buffaloes recorded their first Pac-12 win after six losses in their new league since bolting the Big 12. The Wildcats came in as double-digit favorites but fell behind quickly and their comeback attempt fell short. UA's Nick Foles was 35 for 53 for 352 yards, but he had three interceptions and lost a fumble to go with his one touchdown. The Wildcats trailed by 24 in the third quarter but cut the deficit to 34-23 when Tra'Mayne Bondurant returned an interception 29 yards for a touchdown and then Foles completed all six of his passes for 68 yards on an 88-yard drive that ended with his 11-yard strike to David Douglas. But the Buffaloes went 80 yards in six plays with Stewart scoring from 11 yards out to make it 41-23, then the Wildcats scored again on Ka'Deem Carey's second rushing touchdown. After the Cats recovered the onside kick, Jason Espinoza's interception at midfield led to Stewart's fourth touchdown, a 9-yard scamper. High winds ahead of a winter storm wreaked havoc, especially in the kicking game, but also in the passing game, causing some throws to sail and others to sink. The goal post in the north end zone whipsawed much of the day and there were constant swirls of trash tumbling across the field, along with a couple of marching band members' black hats.

Game 11 - Arizona 31, Arizona State 27 (FS Arizona)
Nov. 19, 2011 – Tempe Ariz. – Attendance: 72,694
Start: 7:37 p.m. – Time of Game: 3:40 – Weather: 69, Mostly Clear

TEMPE, Ariz. – Backup quarterback Bryson Beirne, on the only pass he threw all night, connected with Juron Criner on a 23-yard touchdown play with 5:18 remaining and Arizona held on for a 31-27 Territorial Cup victory over Arizona State. The game ended with the Sun Devils (6-5, 4-4) on the Arizona 15-yard line, where two passes by Brock Osweiler fell incomplete. Beirne came on in relief of game MVP Nick Foles, who completed 35 of 51 for 370 yards and two touchdowns before being shaken up and leaving the game. Criner caught nine passes for 134 yards for Arizona. Osweiler was 36 of 65 for a career-best 487 yards and a touchdown but was intercepted twice. The Sun Devils' Gerell Robinson had 11 receptions for 199 yards, both career bests. ASU's loss and another a week later caused it a berth in the league's first championship game losing to UCLA on a tie breaker. Foles broke Arizona single-season records for yards passing and pass completions in the game and helped UA jump to a 14-0 lead, although ASU scored the next three TDs to pull ahead. Alex Garoutte's 23-yard field goal provided the only points of the third quarter and put the Sun Devils up 24-17 entering the fourth. Foles was 6 of 7 for 79 yards on a 7-play, 94-yard drive that cut the lead to 24-21. Foles threw short to Gino Crump, who evaded four would-be tacklers on a 33-yard touchdown play with 10:25 remaining. He started a 61-yard drive for the eventual winning points, and an interception by Jourdon Grandon thwarted ASU's penultimate empty drive. Shaq Richardson, who had an earlier interception, broke up the final pass play of the game to give interim Coach Tim Kish a 3-3 record. The Cats broke up 14 passes in the game.

Game 12 - Arizona 45, Louisiana 37
Nov. 26, 2011 – Tucson, Ariz. – Attendance: 38,819
Start: 2:05 p.m. – Time of Game 3:11 – Weather: 68, Clear

TUCSON, Ariz. – Nick Foles, coming off the bench, threw for 352 yards and three touchdowns in his final game for Arizona, and the Wildcats held off Louisiana-Lafayette 45-37 on Saturday. Foles, whose status for the game had been uncertain because of bruised ribs, tied the school record for career (67) and single-season (28) touchdown passes. He already held virtually all other passing records at the school. Foles also topped 4,000 yards passing for the season and 10,000 for his career. Juron Criner caught nine passes for 129 yards and two touchdowns for the Wildcats (4-8), breaking the school career record for TD receptions at 32. Blaine Gautier threw for 315 yards and a touchdown and ran for a score for the Ragin' Cajuns (8-4), who cut the Arizona lead to eight points three times in the fourth quarter. Javon Lawson caught five passes for 137 yards for the Cajuns. Gautier tied Jake Delhomme's school record of touchdown passes in a season at 20. ULL tied an NCAA record when Jemarious Moten intercepted Foles' pass and returned it 41 yards for a touchdown early in the fourth quarter, the seventh pick-six of the season for the team. That tied a mark set by Tennessee in 1971. Arizona (4-8) finished 3-3 under interim coach Tim Kish after Mike Stoops was fired halfway through the season. New coach Rich Rodriguez visited with tailgaters before the game and was introduced to the crowd at halftime. ULL pulled within one possession for the final time when Gauthier scored on a 10-yard quarterback draw with 5:05 to play. But the Cajuns never got the ball again as Arizona moved downfield and ran out the clock.

2011 Review Notes

*The biggest news for UA in 2011 was the dismissal of eight-year head coach Mike Stoops on Oct. 9 after opening 1-5. AD Greg Byrne appointed defensive coordinator Tim Kish to finish the year. Stoops ended his Arizona tenure, which began in 2004, with a record of 41-50 overall, and 27-38 in Pac-10/12 play. He led Arizona to consecutive bowl games in 2008-10, matching a program-best streak. Stoops was in his first stint as a head coach. The Cats lost his final 10 games against FBS opponents. Kish wrapped up the year with a 3-3 mark including a victory over Arizona State in Tempe for the Territorial Cup. Rich Rodriguez was named successor and UA's 30th head coach on Nov. 22 in the week leading up to the season finale against Louisiana.

*3-4-5-6 … UA played a brutal stretch in September and the first day in October against teams that finished the regular season ranked No. 3 (Oklahoma State), No. 4 (Stanford), No. 5 (Oregon) and No. 6 (USC), a sequential nightmare. UA was outscored 178-96 in the games with the last the closest at 48-41. Every other game that followed was close in the fourth quarter but UA did not have a strong how-to-win foundation after that start.

*Quarterback Nick Foles capped his three years at Arizona as a 10,000-yard passer, also setting a UA mark with 4,334 yards in 2011. He left owning the career passing yards (10,011), touchdowns (67, tie), attempts, completions and career total offense records, along with single-season marks in yards, TDs, attempts and completions, among other marks. A 2008 transfer from Michigan State who sat out that year, Foles was a two-time honorable mention All-Pac performer and clearly UA's top weapon in 2011.

*WR Juron Criner set a school record with 32 career touchdown receptions. He had catches in his last 28 games as a Cat, finished with 209 receptions for 2,859 yards and two seasons with 11 TD catches, tying a school mark. His game-winning, 23-yard TD at ASU (9-134) could become a rivalry hallmark and he closed his tenure with another good game (9-129, 2 TD) against Louisiana to finish strong in 2011 (75-956.)

*Arizona played the entire 2011 season without three of its best defensive performers – safety Adam Hall, linebacker Jake Fischer and cornerback Jonathan McKnight, all suffering knee injuries. McKnight's came in fall camp, the others in spring ball. Hall came back to play one game in 2011 (OSU, recording 10 tackles) but aggravated the injury and did not play again. Also, UA lost potential starting defensive tackle Willie Mobley and top backup RB Greg Nwoko to spring knee injuries.

*The Cats played an entirely new offensive line in 2011, with one-game starting center Kyle Quinn the veteran as a junior. LT Mickey Baucus (RS-Fr), LG Chris Putton (So.), Quinn, RG Trace Biskin (Jr.) and RT Fabbians Ebbele (RS-Fr.) all saw their first real action under coach Robert Anae, who remains on Rodriguez's staff. Ebbele earned Freshman All-America honors from The Sporting News. Other newcomers who saw action included junior guard Shane Zink and redshirt freshman guard Carter Lees. Ebbele and Baucus gave UA some 6-foot-8, 310-pound anchors outside and could be four-year starters. Quinn earned honorable mention All-Pac-12.

*UA entered the ASU game with 29 pass breakups in 10 games, then racked up 14 against the Devils, plus two interceptions. That matched a game-high record against UCLA in 1999. But, pass defense was the Achilles heel for the 2011 club, which gave up a school-record 3,587 passing yards at a .659 clip. That and nearly 2,000 rushing yards allowed caused the Cats to permit another school record – 5,526 yards in total offense by opponents. Too, the Cats gave up 425 points, second only to the 2003 team (429) in the Cats' Pac-10 or Pac-12 years.

*The Cats tried three place kickers and the last, John Bonano, took the job and ran with it. Jaime Salazar and Alex Zendejas opened the year 2-for-6 on field goals and 13-for-18 on PATs. Bonano, who was listed as a senior but did not play football as a freshman and has a fifth year for 2012, finished at 8-12 on FGs and a perfect 24-24 on PATs. He also earned first-team Academic All-Pac-12 honors and honorable mention All-Pac-12 playing honors.

*Arizona could return 17 players who started on offense and 17 players who started on defense, plus its top kicker and punter in 2012. The Cats also should bring back a total of 58 lettermen. UA played a total of 23 freshmen, true or redshirts in 2011. Two, DTs Sani Fuimaono and Aiulua Fanene, were expected to begin LDS missions in 2012.

Dick Tomey, Arizona's Winningest Coach

The end of the 2000 season saw Dick Tomey resign after 14 years at Arizona. More than two dozen counterparts had coached at the other nine league schools during his tenure. Tomey led Arizona to its two best seasons and left a strong legacy as a coach-educator and the winningest coach in UA history. He later was head coach at San Jose State for five years.

At Arizona:
- Nine winning seasons; overall UA Coaching Record: 95-64-4
- Top 10 in career victories by active Division I-A coaches at time
- Pacific-10 Conference Record: 60-49-4
- No. 8 on all-time Pac-10 coaching victories chart at time
- One of four coaches to win 12 games in 85 years of Pac-10
- Pac-10 Coach of the Year, 1992
- 20 All-Americans, 43 first-team All-Pac-10 players; Four Pac-10 POYs
- 1998 Provost Award for Outstanding Teaching
- Graduation Rate of 67 percent in final report; best in Pac-10, 10th in nation
- Seven Bowl Games, four bowl victories
- Arizona's highest national final ranking (No. 4 in 1998)
- AFCA Western Regional Coach of the Year 1982
- Eight Major National Player Awards; Four Morris Trophy winners

Conference Affiliation Notes

Arizona's first conference affiliation was with the Border Intercollegiate Athletic Conference, founded in 1931. Charter members were Arizona, Arizona State Teachers College-Flagstaff (now NAU), Arizona State Teachers College-Tempe (now ASU), New Mexico and New Mexico A&M (now New Mexico State). Subsequent additions were Texas Tech (1932-35), Texas Mines (now UTEP, 1935-61), Hardin-Simmons (1941-61) and West Texas Teachers College (now West Texas A&M, 1941-61). The league was disbanded in 1961… Arizona played as an independent in 1961, transitioning to membership in the Western Athletic Conference, which began in July 1962. Charter members were Arizona, Arizona State, Utah, New Mexico, Brigham Young and Wyoming. In 1967 UTEP and Colorado State joined. Arizona and ASU departed for the Pacific-10 Conference beginning with the 1978 football season, joining California, UCLA, USC, Stanford, Oregon, Oregon State, Washington and Washington State. Colorado and Utah accepted invitations to join the league in June 2010 and began play in the newly branded Pac-12 Conference in 2011.

All-Time Assistant Football Coaches

The following are known and listed UA assistant coaches, largely from 1959 to the present. The names in parentheses indicate the head coach during each tenure. Modern-day graduate assistants and part-time coaches are not listed. Individuals who served as head freshman coach are listed as assistants.

Some Historical Notes

*Key dates in early Arizona football include the first collegiate game, against Arizona State on Thanksgiving Day in 1899, Nov. 22, when the Territorial Cup was first awarded... Another is Dec. 26, 1921, UA's first bowl appearance in the East-West Christmas Bowl in San Diego… The first game in Arizona Stadium was played against Cal Tech on Oct. 12, 1929… The first night game was against San Diego State in September 1931.

*The war years in 1943 and 1944 were not much different for Arizona than some teams nationally, with no football played. Half of the teams in final AP poll of 1943 included service teams and the service academies. There were five bowls after the 1944 season – the Rose, Orange, Cotton, Sugar and Sun. …Some years later, the UA Student Union Memorial Building incorporated the bell from the U.S.S. Arizona, sunk during the Japanese attack on Pearl Harbor on Dec. 7, 1941. An electronic rendition of the bell still tolls every 15 minutes during the day from speakers atop the UA Administration Building.

*1958 was the first year of Arizona's pending transition to the Western Athletic Conference, with it not playing enough league games (3) to qualify for the Border Conference title. That situation lasted through 1960, and Arizona played officially as an independent in 1961 before beginning WAC play in 1962.

*Arizona's first televised game was broadcast statewide on Nov. 28, 1953, with the Cats at Arizona State. The game was not a network telecast.

Arizona in the Pro Ranks

Wildcats in the Top Round of the NFL Draft

The University of Arizona has had 10 players selected in the first round of the National Football League draft, with the most recent being cornerback Antoine Cason in 2008.

The Arizona first-round selections and their draft order are:

1939 (10th)	Walter Ring Nielsen, running back, New York Giants
1968 (26th)	Bill Lueck, guard, Green Bay Packers
1976 (16th)	Mike Dawson, defensive tackle, St. Louis Cardinals
1984 (7th)	Ricky Hunley, linebacker, Cincinnati Bengals
1990 (8th)	Chris Singleton, linebacker, New England Patriots
1990 (11th)	Anthony Smith, defensive tackle, Oakland Raiders
1991 (27th)	John Fina, offensive tackle, Buffalo Bills
1999 (10th)	Chris McAlister, cornerback, Baltimore Ravens
2000 (31st)	Trung Canidate, tailback, St. Louis Rams
2008 (27th)	Antoine Cason, cornerback, San Diego Chargers

Arizona in the 2012 NFL Draft

Three Wildcats were picked in the April 2012 draft, giving Arizona 18 picks in the last six years. Quarterback Nick Foles (3rd round, Philadelphia Eagles), receiver Juron Criner (5th round, Oakland Raiders) and cornerback Trevin Wade (7th round, Cleveland Browns) each got the calls. A number of other Wildcats were expected to negotiate free agent contracts.

Wildcats in Professional Football

Note: Players must be on regular-season active roster, taken in the most recent draft, signed for current year tryouts, otherwise affiliated as noted, to be listed. Bold signifies active. Research by Dave Petruska, Anthony Gimino, Frankie Acosta.

Super Bowl Wildcats

Former UA players have 43 overall player appearances in the NFL Championship tilt, most by starters. Three former Wildcats played in Super Bowl XLII in 2008 in Glendale, Ariz., for the most in any one season. Retired linebacker Tedy Bruschi and offensive lineman Glenn Parker lead all UA players with five Super Bowls – all of Bruschi's with the New England Patriots and Parker in four with the Buffalo Bills and one with the New York Giants. Former Wildcat Bruschi, the NCAA career sack leader when he left college, has the best Super Bowl jewelry collection with three Championship rings as the starting middle linebacker for the Patriots in the 2000s. In 2008 starting linebacker Antonio Pierce and backup DB Michael Johnson took home championship rings for the New York Giants over Bruschi's Pats.

Scholar-Athlete Awards

2007 ToyoTires Pac-10 Scholar-Athlete - Spencer Larsen

A two-time first-team Academic All-Pac-10 selection, Arizona linebacker Spencer Larsen became the first league football player named in the initial group of student-athletes to receive the conference's new Scholar-Athlete Award. Larsen's 3.70 grade point average in regional development, his first-team All-Pac-10 playing honor and his exemplary citizenship and scholastic standing helped him earn the award. He led the Pac-10 with 131 tackles his senior year, led Arizona with 15.5 tackles for loss, was in on seven fumble plays (4 FR and 3 FF)and knocked down five passes. He finished his career with a total of 312 tackles. He was a 2007 finalist for the Wuerffel Trophy awarded annually to a top citizen-athlete among national collegiate football players, and an All-America selection by rivals.com (2nd team) and cfn.com (3rd).

2003 Woody Hayes Scholar-Athlete - Jason Johnson

University of Arizona senior quarterback Jason Johnson won the 2003 Woody Hayes National Scholar-Athelte Award in January 2003, honoring an exemplary year as the outstanding man in Division I athletics.

Johnson, who made outstanding appearances in both the East-West Shrine Game and Hula Bowl, earned Academic All-Pac-10 first-team quarterback honors for the second consecutive year, was a Verizon District VIII first-team Academic pick, won a berth on the American Football Coaches "Good Works Team" and completed his final year at Arizona with more than a dozen single-seeason, career or UA top-10 marks in passing and total offense. He was named the team's Most Valuable Offensive Player for 2002 and elected a co-captain by his teammates. He was a Canadian Football League quarterback and Grey Cup Champion for Edmonton after his graduation.

Johnson completed his undergraduate studies in 2001 with a 3.79 grade point average in business management, then was a honors graduate student in religious studies his final two semesters. Among his community activities were the Fellowship for Christian Athletes, Drug Free School Program, youth basketball coaching, Adopt a Family, Race for a Cure Cancer Walk and numerous youth-oriented speaking engagements.

1996 Football Foundation Scholar-Athlete - Wayne Wyatt

A two-year starting center on the Wildcat football teams of 1995-96 and eventually one of three team captains, Wayne Wyatt earned respectable numbers on the field. But his numbers off the field captured national attention — namely his 3.941 grade point average. He was selected as one of the 16 National Football Foundation and College Hall of Fame National Scholar-Athletes in 1996, with an $18,000 scholarship for post-graduate studies, which he used for dental school. Wyatt was named to the 1996 GTE Academic All-America football first team by the College Sports Information Directors of America, Arizona's fifth player to earn first-team scholastic honors.

Wyatt earned Pacific-10 All-Academic and GTE All-District 8 honors. He was honored as one of the UA's distinguished scholar-athletes, named every semester to the Dean's List and earned Phi Beta Kappa honors as well. He received a bachelor's degree in philosophy in August 1995 and a master's degree in business administration in May 1997.

National Players of the Year

1990 Jim Thorpe Award - Darryll Lewis

Arizona defensive back Darryll Lewis won the 1990 Jim Thorpe Award as the country's top defensive back. Lewis, who was inducted into Arizona's Sports Hall of Fame in 1995, finished his career with 14 interceptions, played in the Hula Bowl, was a third-round NFL pick and is a regular NFL starter. He was the 1990 Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year.

Lewis was a game-turning defensive back; such as the time his interception return of 70 yards for a score helped UA beat UCLA. Or his goal-line stop of scrambling Oregon quarterback Bill Musgrave at the goal line to preserve another victory. Those were huge plays by a big-time player, but a few of many he provided as a four-year letterman from 1987-1990.

1993 Outland Trophy - Rob Waldrop

Wildcat defensive tackle Rob Waldrop capped a tremendous career as the winner of the Outland Trophy for the nation's top interior lineman in 1993.

Opponents double- and triple-teamed him at times in an effort to contain his pass rush and run-stopping techniques. Among his 53 tackles that year were 14 for losses, including eight sacks — a remarkable feat for an interior lineman. In his final two seasons, he had 18 sacks and spearheaded the play, which spawned the Wildcats' "Desert Swarm" nickname. He also won the Football Writer's inaugural Defensive Player of the Year Award, now called the Bronko Nagurski Award. He was named UPI Lineman of the Year as well.

In a superior effort at the 1994 Fiesta Bowl, Waldrop helped pin Miami with its back to the goal and came up with another sack, helping Arizona beat Miami, 29-0.

1994 Lou Groza Award - Steve McLaughlin

Arizona's Steve McLaughlin topped a remarkable four-year career in 1994 by winning the Lou Groza Collegiate Place Kicker Award as the nation's best — the player you want to kick one in the clutch. He certainly did in 1994, earning consensus first-team All-America honors.

He made 80 percent of his kicks during the season, including an amazing 12-of-16 from beyond 40 yards and 3-of-5 from beyond 50 yards. Subtracting a couple of monster tries at the end of periods, he was 23-of-27 from 57 yards and in. He led the Pac-10 in scoring with 95 points in 1994 and was first in the league and second nationally with 2.1 field goals per game. He kicked a career-best 54-yard field goal against California to earn an AT&T Long Distance Award for the longest kick of the week. He made all 26 of his point-after kicks. He was an accomplished pooch punter from field goal formation and kicked off his final two years as well.

He finished his career with 57 field goals in 81 tries and made 112-of-119 PATs for 283 points, third on the UA's all-time scoring list.

McLaughlin acquired the 'let-me-kick-it' attitude that is so critical to the trade. He had some misses that might have turned games but kept his confidence growing. One big day for McLaughlin came when his three field goals helped beat No. 1 Washington in 1992.

1998 Mosi Tatupu Award - Chris McAlister

Arizona cornerback Chris McAlister capped an outstanding three-year Wildcat career by winning the 1998 Mosi Tatupu Special Teams Player of the Year Award as the nation's top player in the kicking game.

McAlister, a unanimous All-America pick and finalist for the Jim Thorpe Award honoring the best collegiate defensive back that year as well, was involved in Arizona's special teams from both sides of the kick.

In 1998, he set the tone for the Cats' big-play 12-1 season by returning the opening kickoff 100 yards for a touchdown at Hawai'i on the first play of the year, tying his own school record set in 1996 against UCLA. He blocked punts in each of the final two regular-season games of the year and had a third deflected punt. He returned a punt 69 yards for a score against Northeast Louisiana and returned an interception 60 yards for a score against Washington State to become only the seventh player in NCAA history to have scored on kickoff, punt and interception returns in a single season.

He was a defensive player who averaged 38 yards per game in all-purpose yardage: eight kickoff returns for a 29.5 mark, five punt returns for a 20.8 mark and five interception returns for a 12.8 figure. What it meant to the Cats for three years was like having a 12th player on the field each time McAlister took his place somewhere among the action. His 18 career interceptions placed him No. 3 on UA's all-time chart, but his special teams' play was unmatched.

2007 Jim Thorpe Award - Antoine Cason

Arizona cornerback Antoine Cason became UA's second Jim Thorpe Award winner and the latest Wildcat consensus All-American since 1999 with his superlative senior season in 2007. Among his highlight-reel plays in 2007 were interception returns of 42 yards for a score against Oregon, a 56-yard punt return for a score against the Ducks and a 60-yard interception return for a score against Oregon State. He had three other interceptions on the year to give him a career total of 15, fourth best in school history. His 165 yard on INT returns was just shy of the school record 191 yards set by Thorpe Award winner Darryll Lewis in 1990. Cason was a two-time first-team All-Pac-10 selection. In 2007 he was named first-team All-America by Walter Camp, the Associated Press, The Sporting News, CBS Sports, ESPN.com, SI.com, Rivals.com and cfn.com. His electrifying play was no more special than his off-the-field comportment as a UA team spokesman and leader throughout his career. His 'Cason Cares' charity drive for cancer research in 2007 typified his renaissance leadership. He was Arizona's Ruby Award winner as the top male student-athlete for the 2007-08 school year. But his senior year's action on the field was special. He finished with 71 tackles, five interception, 14 passes defensed, two forced fumbles, a sack and four tackles for loss. His four returns for scores (2 INT, 2 PR) set a UA standard.

National Football Foundation, College Football Hall of Fame

Linebacker Ricky Hunley - 1998 Inductee

One of many defensive stars at Arizona over the years, All-America linebacker Ricky Hunley was a hugely physical presence in the early 1980s and became the first Wildcat elected to the College Football Hall of Fame, with induction in 1998. He turned down a Pittsburgh Pirates baseball offer to play football at Arizona. From 1980 to 1983, Hunley was in on an amazing 566 tackles and was a consensus first-team All-American in both 1982 and 1983. He was a three-time All-Pacific-10 Conference selection and was the 1983 Pac-10 Co-Defensive Player of the Year. A team captain in 1983, he also earned Arizona's Most Valuable Player honor in helping lead the Wildcats to a 7-3-1 record. For several seasons, he played alongside his younger brother, LaMonte, also a Wildcat linebacker. Hunley led the Wildcats in unassisted tackles every year from 1981-83 with totals of 74, 100 and 99, respectively. He also set a school record recovering five fumbles in 1983. Now a professional coach, Hunley played in the NFL for seven years and participated in Super Bowls XXI and XXII as a Denver Bronco. He has coached at Southern California and Missouri and served on the Board of Directors for the Black Coaches Association and the Minority Issues Committee of the AFCA.

Coach Jim Young - 1999 Inductee

Former University of Arizona coach Jim Young joined several other coaches — Don Coryell and Jerry Claiborne — and the likes of Herschel Walker, Billy Kilmer, John Hannah, Ross Browner and several other storied players in the 1999 class of inductees into the National Football Foundation College Hall of Fame. Young, retired in Tucson, had three successful head coaching stints, including his first at Arizona from 1973 to 1976, at Purdue from 1977 to 1981 and a tour of duty at Army from 1983 to 1990. Overall, he won more than 60 percent of his games, at 120-71-2, turning around programs at each stop. At UA, he was 31-13 and posted two 9-2 seasons in 1974 and 1975, among UA's best ever. His 1973 Arizona club finished 8-3 and tied for UA's first conference title in 40 years. At Purdue, he was 38-19-1 with three bowl victories. Coaching the Cadets, he was 51-39-1 with a 2-1 bowl record. Young, who holds bachelor's and master's degrees from Bowling Green, employed passing attacks at Arizona and Purdue and installed the wishbone at Army to reach national rushing prominence. Young completed his football career as an offensive assistant on Dick Tomey's 1992-94 Arizona staffs after Tomey talked him into delaying his retirement.

Coach Darrell Mudra - 2000 Inductee

Darrell Mudra retired from collegiate football in 1988 bringing an end to a Hall of Fame career, which boasts a 200-81-4 record and two national championships. He started his collegiate head-coaching career at Adams State in 1959 and led the team to the 1962 Mineral Bowl, where they defeated Northern Illinois 23-20. In 1963 he became the head coach at North Dakota State where he successfully turned the program around from a 0-10 record the year before, to a 1964 Mineral Bowl victory. In 1965 he won his first national championship defeating Grambling 20-7 in the Pecan Bowl. He then coached the University of Arizona for two seasons and led them to the 1968 Sun Bowl. After a successful stint at Western Illinois, Mudra coached Florida State for two years before going to Eastern Illinois where he won the Division II National Championship. During Coach Mudra's tenure at Northern Iowa, he led the team to the I-AA semifinals in 1985 and 1987. The Panthers were ranked fourth nationally at the end of the 1987 season and lost to the eventual national champion Northeast Louisiana 44-41 in overtime. He was named Kodak Region 4 Coach of the Year in 1985 while at UNI. Mudra was nicknamed "Dr. Victory" because of his success at each level, but always shied away from all of the accolades, preferring to let his assistants and players take the credit.

Safety Chuck Cecil - 2009 Inductee

A two-time First Team Academic All-America selection (1986-87), Cecil starred for Arizona from 1984 to 1987, first under the late Larry Smith and then under former head coach Dick Tomey for his final year. He began as a recruited walk-on and finished his UA career as one of the Pac-10's noted and fearless safeties. A consensus All-American in 1987, Cecil was the Aloha Bowl MVP and a two-time first-team all-conference selection, plus earned second-team honors as a sophomore. He was named Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year in 1987 and Pac-10 Player of the Week on three occasions. A three-time Pac-10 All-Academic selection, he culminated his education as a recipient of the NCAA Top VI Award, one of the nation's top scholar-athlete citations. He was named Arizona's male winner of the the Pac-10 Conference Medal.

He holds the Arizona career record with 21 interceptions and among those returned one 100 yards for a touchdown against Arizona State in 1986, one of the most electrifying moment in UA football history. Drafted in the fourth round of the 1988 draft by the Green Bay Packers, Cecil spent seven seasons in the NFL and is currently defensive coordinator for the Tennessee Titans. Cecil has served as co-chair of the University of Arizona Medical Center Foundation campaign for UMC Trauma Center.

Defensive Tackle Rob Waldrop - 2011 Inductee

A two-time consensus All-American during his junior and senior seasons, Waldrop was the Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Year in 1993, received the Outland Trophy honoring the country's top interior lineman, was voted the Top Defensive Player of the Year by the Football Writers of America (now called the Bronko Nagurski award), and was one of four finalists for the Lombardi Trophy honoring the outstanding lineman of the year. In 1992 he was voted by opposing linemen as the Pac-10's defensive winner of the Morris Award. He earned first-team All-Pacific-10 Conference honors in 1992 and 1993 and was Pac-10 Defensive Player of the Week against Miami in 1992 and versus USC in 1993. He was named defensive MVP of the 1992 Sun Bowl. He earned Playboy Pigskin Preview All-America honors in 1993. During his senior season, Waldrop recorded 53 total tackles, 14 for losses, including eight sacks --a remarkable feat for an interior lineman. His play, which helped spawn the Wildcats' "Desert Swarm" nickname, was evident in the 1994 Fiesta Bowl when he helped guide Arizona to a shutout, 29-0 victory. He spearheaded an effort which helped the Wildcats lead the nation and set a Pac-10 record with 33 rushing yards allowed per game in 1993, when Arizona led the nation in total defense. He finished his Arizona career with an amazing 164 tackles for an interior lineman, with 44 tackles for loss and 22.5 sacks, which rate fifth in UA's history. Waldrop was drafted in `94 by the NFL's Kansas City Chiefs, played two seasons and later went on to a 1996 stint with the Toronto Argonauts of the CFL.

Arizona Football Traditions

Here is a sampling of some of the University of Arizona's top athletics traditions.

"Bear Down"

The University of Arizona's most memorable athletic tradition is the slogan "Bear Down," given to the Wildcat teams by John "Button" Salmon, student body president and varsity athlete, shortly before he died in 1926 following an auto accident. Button Salmon's last message to his teammates, spoken to J.F. "Pop" McKale, coach and athletic director, was, "Tell them... tell the team to bear down." A memorial to Salmon was erected in 1986 and is the centerpiece of Bear Down Plaza outside the southwest corner of McKale Center. Students painted the slogan on the roof of University Gymnasium shortly after Salmon's death, and it has since been known as Bear Down Gym. UA's fight song, "Bear Down, Arizona," was written by former UA marching band director Jack Lee and is a part of every major UA sports event. A highway memorial to the Bear Down tradition was dedicated in spring 2008 at Florence, Ariz., near the spot where Salmon was tragically injured.

"They Fought Like Wildcats"

In 1914, a student correspondent for the Los Angeles Times, covering the Arizona-Occidental football game at Occidental, penned: "The Arizona men showed the fight of wildcats." After reading the dispatch of the game back in Tucson, the student body quickly supported a move to call all Arizona athletic teams the "Wildcats" instead of the "Varsity." The writer, the late Bill Henry, who later became a renowned Times columnist and war correspondent, was honored as the "Father of the Arizona Wildcats" at the 50th Homecoming in 1964.

Cardinal & Navy

Until the University fielded its first football team in 1899, the school colors were sage green and silver. However, the student manager at the time, Quintus J. Anderson, was able to strike a particularly good deal with a local merchant for game sweaters of solid blue with red trim. He then wrote a request that the colors be adopted. His suggestion was approved, and it's been Cardinal Red and Navy Blue ever since for Arizona uniforms.

Territorial Cup

In summer 2001, officials at Arizona and Arizona State received NCAA Division I-A designation for the 1899 Territorial Cup as the oldest trophy for a rivalry game in America. The annual Arizona-Arizona State winner obtains possession of the Cup for its hall of fame, a replica goes to the winning school's president's office, and two later trophies used over the years in the hard-fought rivalry are awarded to the winning coach and the Most Valuable Player. On Thanksgiving Day in 1899, then Arizona Territorial Normal School defeated Arizona 11-2 in front of a reported 300 fans, and the Cup had its first curator. But over the years, the silver-plated antique prize was misplaced and supplanted by various other awards for the Big Game -- the Governor's Trophy (1953-1979), a 'Victory" sculpture by artist Ben Goo, and a Saguaro Trophy, among others. To ensure the safety of the original trophy, the actual Territorial Cup will be moved from one school to the other only under escort and the supervision of gloved archivists. The Ben Goo Trophy, awarded from 1979 to 1998 as the game trophy, become the Bob Moran Most Valuable Player award in 2008, selected each year by covering media, in honor of the rivalry's late sportswriter. The Saguaro Trophy, a smaller bronze piece commissioned from artist Dora Perry in 1998, goes to the winning coach in the series.

"A" Mountain

Situated on Sentinel Peak (elevation 2,885 ft.) west of the city, the 160-foot high by 70-foot wide rock and mortar block "A" was constructed by UA students between Nov. 13, 1915 and March 4, 1916, in commemoration of Arizona's 7-3 upset football victory at Pomona in October 1915. For decades, freshmen students whitewashed the "A" in weekend ceremonies around the first day of school each fall. Currently the 'A' sports coats of red, white and blue.

1921 East-West Christmas Classic -Centre (Ky.) 38, Arizona 0

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—A dominating squad from Centre (Ky.) College splashed to a 38-0 victory over Arizona in front of several thousand rain-soaked fans, spoiling Arizona's first-ever bowl game appearance.

The Praying Colonels held the Cats to zero first downs in the first half, and Arizona was unable to maintain a good drive throughout the game.

Centre's Red Roberts, one of Walter Camp's first All-America ends, scored the first touchdown five minutes into the match. Later, All-American Alvin (Bo) McMillin went over the right tackle for another score. Centre led 18-0 at the half.

The second half was much the same, as Centre dominated every phase. Just as Arizona was mounting a drive late in the third stanza, an interception ended Western hopes, and the Wildcat defense was unable to halt the potent Eastern attack. Centre's Herb Covington scored on a punt return and a sweep to seal the victory.

1949 Salad Bowl - Drake 14, Arizona 13

PHOENIX, Ariz.—Arizona couldn't overcome crucial mistakes, and the Drake Bulldogs triumphed, 14-13, before a crowd of 14,000 in nostalgia-filled Montgomery stadium.

The fiesty Midwesterners were outgained by coach Miles Casteel's troops, 355 yards to 206, but the Cats had two fumbles and an interception that ended any hope for a victory. Drake built a 14-7 halftime lead on the strength of Frank Metzger's 1-yard run and Floyd Miller's interception of Ed Wolgast for a 20-yard score. The Cats got on the board with a 15-yard Wolgast rollout.

Arizona roared back in the second half, as running back Charlie Hall romped 79 yards with the third quarter kickoff. The Cats failed to score on their first thrust after the thrilling return, but after an exchange of punts, the durable Wolgast tallied his second touchdown.

Drake carried the luck on this afternoon. Arizona's Wrinfred Tackett, one of the Border-Conference's top extra-point kickers, booted the pigskin against the left upright, the ball bounced away from the goal posts, and Drake escaped with a one-point margin.

Wolgast finished the day with 133 yards rushing, eight yards more than Drake's team total.

1968 Sun Bowl - Auburn 34, Arizona 10

EL PASO, Texas—Arizona battled Auburn on even terms for one half, but within a period of seven minutes in the second half, the Tigers scored 24 points to crush the Wildcats, 34-10, before 32,302 weather-beaten fans and a national television audience in the 34th annual Sun Bowl.

Auburn had taken the lead, 10-0, on a John Riley 52-yard field goal, tying a Sun Bowl record, and a 65-yard touchdown pass from All-SEC quarterback Loran Carter to Mickey Zofko. But the Cats were fit to be tied as Steve Hurley booted a 37-yarder after both teams exchanged turnovers. Arizona held Auburn on fourth down with under two minutes left in the half, and Arizona's Bruce Lee went to work. Two first-down pass completions set up a 12-yard toss to Hal Arnason in the end zone, tying the score 10-10 at the half.

In the third quarter, Auburn took the lead and didn't look back as Tommy Taylor scampered nine yards to put the Tigers up 17-10. Then Buddy McClinton intercepted Lee for the third time in the game and raced 32 yards to score. Auburn's next possession produced a dazzling Carter to Tim Christian 42-yard touchdown pass. Riley then kicked a 41-yard field goal to secure the victory with 11:14 left.

Auburn's Buddy McClinton was voted MVP of the game, and All-America tackle Dave Campbell was honored as the outstanding lineman.

1979 Fiesta Bowl - Pittsburgh 16, Arizona 10

TEMPE, Ariz.—The 10th-ranked Pittsburgh Panthers survived a late rally and hung on to defeat Arizona, 16-10, in the 1979 Fiesta Bowl.

A national television audience was able to watch superb defensive play on both sides. Arizona's defense held Pitt to 299 yards, while the offense dented the Panther's nationally-ranked defense for 317 yards.

Pitt led 6-0 at halftime on the strength of 46-and 36-yard field goals by the game's most valuable offensive player, Mark Schubert. Arizona moved the ball well, but couldn't get the one big play it needed. The Cats drove to Pitt's 37, 26 and 22, but came up empty each time.

The Cats' trouble came on key plays. Midway through the first period, they were stopped on fourth-and-two at the Pitt 21. Arizona managed to get on the board late in the third period on a 38-yard field goal by Brett Weber, but Pitt answered with a touchdown to expand its lead to 13-3.

The Panthers appeared to have wrapped up the game when Schubert kicked his third field goal of the day with 8:02 left. But the Cats reached into their bag of tricks to get back in the game. From the Pitt 47, fullback Hubie Oliver took a pitch and launched a pass down field to Greg Jackson who caught it at the Panther one. Oliver scored on the next play.

The outcome was in doubt until Terry White picked off a Jim Krohn pass with :58 remaining. Arizona's David Liggins was voted the game's most valuable defensive player on the strength of two key interceptions of Dan Marino passes to thwart Panther drives.

1985 Sun Bowl - Arizona 13, Georgia 13

EL PASO, Texas—Arizona and Georgia each failed on late field goal attempts leaving the teams tied, 13-13, and the record Sun Bowl crowd of 52,203 going home with an empty feeling.

The teams battled on even terms for a half with Georgia's Steve Crumley booting a 37-yard field goal and Arizona's Max Zendejas adding a 22-yarder after an apparent Arizona touchdown was nullified by penalty.

The third quarter belonged to coach Larry Smith's troops, who drove 34 yards with the second-half kickoff before Zendejas nailed a 52-yard field goal. The Wildcats expanded the margin to 13-3 with 3:30 left to play in the stanza, as Martin Rudolph picked off a James Jackson pass and bolted 35 yards for a touchdown.

Georgia took the ensuing kickoff and drove to the Arizona 28, where Davis Jacobs kicked a 45-yarder to begin the Bulldog rally. Two plays later, James DeBow fumbled, and Georgia's Tony Flack recovered to set up Lars Tate's game-tying 2-yard run. Jacobs missed a 44-yarder with 1:14 to play. The Cats then used a 25-yard David Adams run to give Zendejas a 39-yard try with :10 remaining. However, his attempt was wide-right and short.

Zendejas and Georgia center Peter Anderson won outstanding player honors. Arizona finished the season at 8-3-1, while Georgia wound up 7-3-2.

1986 Aloha Bowl - Arizona 30, North Carolina 21

HONOLULU, Hawaii—Arizona capitalized on big defensive plays to coast to its first-ever post-season victory, 30-21, over North Carolina. All-America free safety Chuck Cecil was the ring-leader of the Cat defense that forced five fumbles with bone-jarring hits.

The Arizona offense showed spark as well. David Adams closed his sterling career with 81 yards rushing and a touchdown and three catches for 77 yards. Offensive MVP Alfred Jenkins finished 12-of-28 passing for 187 yards and a score.

But it was coach Larry Smith's defense which made the big plays to set up points. A Jim Birmingham fumble recovery led to a 31-yard Gary Coston field goal to begin the attack. Later, Boomer Gibson partially blocked a punt, and the Cats put seven more on the board with an Adams one-yard scamper. Danny Lockett's sack of Mark Maye caused a fumble, and the Cats cashed in with another Coston three-pointer for a 13-0 halftime lead.

It was more of the same in the third quarter. Arizona's Jeff Valder booted a 52-yard field goal to set an Aloha Bowl record. Then Cecil clobbered Jonathan Hall, and Jerry Beasley recovered the subsequent fumble at the Tar Heel 30. Jenkins found Jon Horton from 13 yards out for the quick score. Another Tar Heel fumble led to Greathouse's five-yard scoring run, and the Cats were in control.

1989 Copper Bowl - Arizona 17, North Carolina State 10

TUCSON, Ariz.—Arizona cashed in on big plays to defeat North Carolina State, 17-10, before an Arizona Stadium crowd of 37,237 in the inaugural Copper Bowl. The Wildcats were dominated statistically, 310 yards to 130 yards including a season-low 50 yards on the turf. However, two unlikely heroes, Olatide Ogunfiditimi and Scott Geyer, made the big plays to pull out the victory.

In the first stanza, neither team could sustain drives, but the Cats got on the board first as Ronald Veal found a double-covered Ogunfiditimi 37 yards down field for a 7-0 advantage. The second quarter proved more magical as Geyer, the Defensive MVP, intercepted Shane Montgomery and raced 85 yards for a score.

But the Wolfpack had a magic wand of their own as Montgomery, the Offensive MVP, capped a 56-yard, nine-play drive with a four-yard touchdown toss to fullback Todd Varn to cut the lead, 14-7. The half ended with a Gary Coston 34-yard field goal. Score: 17-7.

The second half included a Damon Hartman 43-yarder to inch the Pack closer, 17-10. However the New Year brought a little luck to the Cats, as Montgomery just missed a diving Chris Williams over the middle for the possible tying touchdown with 1:02 left.

Arizona Dick Tomey notched a victory in his first-ever bowl game in 13 years as a head coach. The Wildcats finished 8-4 on the season, and the Wolfpack closed at 7-5.

1990 Eagle Aloha Bowl - Syracuse 28, Arizona 0

HONOLULU, Hawai'i—Marvin Graves ran for two touchdowns and passed for another score as Syracuse embarrassed Arizona, 28-0, in the ninth Eagle Aloha Bowl game in rain-drenched Aloha Stadium.

Graves scored on a pair of 5-yard runs and threw 47 yards to Terry Richardson and 6 yards to Chris Gedney as the Orangemen ran their record to 7-4-2. Arizona fell to 7-5. The shutout snapped Arizona's 214-game scoring streak, the second longest scoring streak in NCAA history. The last time the Cats were shut out was a 31-0 defeat by Arizona State in 1971.

The Orangemen drove 65 yards in 13 plays following the opening kickoff with Graves scoring on a quarterback draw from the five with 8:35 left in the first quarter.

Syracuse made it 14-0 with 2:22 remaining in the half as Richardson slipped behind the Cat pass defense for an easy 47-yard reception. Arizona tried to get back into the game in the third quarter, twice reaching the Orangemen 35-yard line. But both drives died, and Syracuse put the game away in the fourth quarter with two long marches.

Graves was selected as Syracuse's most valuable player, and cornerback Todd Burden, who had two interceptions and caused a fumble, was selected as Arizona's most valuable player. The week-long inclement weather put a damper on many activities and caused many ticket purchasers to stay at home. There were 32,217 tickets sold but only 14,185 attended the game.

1992 Hancock Bowl - Baylor 20, Arizona 15

EL PASO, Texas—Arizona's defense lived up to its billing on all but two plays; those spelled doom as Baylor's big scoring passes helped beat the Cats, 20-15, in the John Hancock Bowl.

UA, which unleashed a no-huddle, wide-open passing attack, opened scoring with a Steve McLaughlin first-quarter field goal and increased the lead to 10-0 with a 65-yard scoring drive capped by a George Malauulu quarterback draw for seven yards mid-way through the second quarter.

BU halfback Brandell Jackson hit Melvin Bonner for a 61-yard strike three minutes later, but Arizona answered with a 14-play drive to set up another McLaughlin field goal and take a 13-7 halftime lead.

The Bears, held to 47 yards rushing, went to the air and struck again with another Bonner TD catch for 69 yards from QB J.J. Joe. Shortly into the fourth period, the Bears capitalized on two Arizona fumbles in UA territory and cashed them in for two Terry Weir field goals and a 20-13 lead.

With time running out, Arizona held BU deep on fourth-and-eight, and punter Rhett Delaney took an intentional safety at 0:31. A Chuck Levy 27-yard kickoff return put the Cats in decent shape, and UA drove to the Baylor 28. Two passes from Malauulu into the end zone were incomplete although Heath Bray nearly snagged the game winner on the first try.

1994 IBM OS/2 Fiesta Bowl - Arizona 29, Miami 0

TEMPE, Ariz.—Arizona's heralded "Desert Swarm" defense lived up to its name, and the Cats' offensive attack nearly named its own price as UA thumped No. 10 Miami, 29-0, in IBM OS/2 Fiesta Bowl XXIII.

The convincing victory was the bowl's only shutout in its 23-game history.

UA ran for 257 yards and one touchdown, passed for 152 yards and two touchdowns, had three Steve McLaughlin field goals and held Miami to 182 yards in total offense. The Wildcats' swarming defense limited the Canes to Fiesta Bowl record-lows of 22 rushes and 35 yards, plus picked off three Miami passes and sacked the quarterback four times.

Tailback Chuck Levy ran for 142 yards including a 68-yard scoring dash and earned Fiesta Bowl offensive MVP honors, while defensive end Tedy Bruschi recorded a sack and earned defensive MVP honors for UA.

UA jumped to a quick lead on its first possession, driving 75 yards with Dan White throwing a 13-yard TD pass to Troy Dickey. Arizona never looked back.

The Canes' total offense was the second-lowest in Fiesta Bowl history, and the Arizona margin of victory was the second-largest in bowl history. Arizona enjoyed a time of possession advantage of 37:20 to 22:40 for Miami, another bowl record. Miami's frustration was typified by its first possession, starting at its own 37-yard line. Three plays later the Canes punted on fourth-and-41 from their own 6-yard line.

The game gave UA its first 10-victory season in 90 years of football, and its strong showing earned the Cats a No. 9 final ranking in the coaches poll and No. 10 in the media poll.

1994 Freedom Bowl - Utah 16, Arizona 13

ANAHEIM, Calif.—Utah used a 72-yard kickoff return to set up the winning touchdown, as the Utes upset No. 14 Arizona in the 11th annual Freedom Bowl, 16-13. A crowd of 27,477 watched as the Cats used a stifling defense to hold Utah to only 75 yards of total offense.

Arizona quarterback Dan White connected with Ontiwaun Carter from 23 yards out to give the Cats the early lead. After a White fumble deep in Arizona territory, Utah running back Charlie Brown scampered in from six yards out to tie the score.

After a 44-yard field goal by Steve McLaughlin, the Cats had first-and-goal at the Utah 2-yard line, but two dropped passes by Tim Thomas and then Lamar Lovett in the end zone forced the Cats to kick a 20-yard field goal. Late in the fourth quarter with Arizona leading 13-7, and Matt Peyton having to punt from his own end zone, the Cats gambled and took a safety as Peyton stepped out of the back of the end zone.

On the ensuing kickoff, Cal Beck returned the ball to the Arizona 5-yard line. The Wildcat defense held the Utes on three straight downs to set up a fourth-and-goal. Quarterback Mike McCoy scrambled out of the pocket and was in the grasp of Chuck Osborne but managed to get the pass off and found Kevin Dyson in the corner of the end zone for the winning score. A final UA drive ended in an interception.

The Cats recorded six sacks on the day, three of them by Tedy Bruschi, who earned Defensive MVP honors. Chuck Osborne had two sacks, and Sean Harris led the team with nine tackles.

1997 Insight.com Bowl - Arizona 20, New Mexico 14

TUCSON, Ariz.—Four Wildcat interceptions helped seal a hard-fought victory for Arizona over New Mexico in the ninth Insight.com Bowl, 20-14, before a crowd of 49,385 in the Cats' house, Arizona Stadium.

UA ran over the Lobos, using a 209-yard running attack featuring the quicker Trung Canidate and the bruising style of Kelvin Eafon on 43 of the team's 81 plays. Canidate was named the game's Most Outstanding Offensive Player with 97 yards and a touchdown on 24 carries, while Eafon earned the game's Most Valuable Player award for his 75 yards and two touchdowns on 19 totes. Thirteen of his rushes came in the fourth quarter when Arizona used ball possession to turn back New Mexico efforts at a game-winning touchdown.

Arizona picked off four passes by UNM's Graham Leigh—one in the first quarter by cornerback Chris McAlister, two in the third quarter by backup corner Kelvin Hunter and strong safety Rashee Johnson, and one in the fourth stanza by cornerback Kelly Malveaux, who returned the ball 44 yards just as the Lobos were crossing midfield. It was Malveaux' first interception of the year. Arizona outside linebacker Jimmy Sprotte earned the bowl's Most Outstanding Defensive Player honor with nine tackles including four hits for losses of 12 yards. Inside linebacker Marcus Bell was the Cats' leading tackler with 10.

Arizona coach Dick Tomey gave fifth-year senior QB Brady Batten the start in the game. An injury early in the year cost him a shot at the every-day spot. He played all but the fourth quarter, when the nominal No. 1 guy for most of the year, Ortege Jenkins, came on.

1998 Culligan Holiday Bowl - Arizona 23, Nebraska 20

SAN DIEGO, Calif.—Arizona's defense held the storied Nebraska option rushing attack to 87 net yards, and the No. 5-ranked Wildcats cranked up some tough-guy rushing of their own to score 14 fourth-quarter points and beat the No. 14 Cornhuskers, 23-20, in the 21st annual Culligan Holiday Bowl.

The Cats secured the school's finest record in history and earned enough acclaim through their efforts in the game — the most watched of any college bowl game in ESPN history – to earn a final No. 4 ranking in both the Associated Press and USA Today/ESPN polls.

Unanimous All-America cornerback Chris McAlister cemented his reputation with an outstanding effort, intercepting two passes, one which turned the Huskers back on their final come-back try with less than four minutes remaining. He also had a 78-yard reverse punt return called back because of a questionable blocking call against Derek Hall.

Arizona trailed 13-9 at the half, and both teams struggled through five possessions in the third quarter before UA's Dennis Northcutt gave the Cats some decent field position with a 16-yard punt return to start a 10-play scoring drive. Trung Canidate rushed five times for 37 yards in the span, and Keith Smith completed passes of five yards to Northcutt and Paul Shields and topped it off with a 15-yard strike to Brad Brennan for the score.

Nebraska answered, though, and reclaimed the lead at 20-16 with an eight-play, 88-yard drive, almost exclusively through the air.

With 10 minutes remaining, Smith opened UA's next drive with a seven-yard pass to Shields, then the Cats ran the ball eight straight times for the nine-play, 68-yard drive which netted the final score on a Kelvin Eafon one-yard plunge. Smith had runs of 20, eight and eight yards to set up the score.

UA halted the Huskers with McAlister's second pick and then later used enough clock with a first down to force Nebraska to get the ball back with 34 seconds remaining. One short completion and three incompletions, and the game was over.

Canidate ran for 101 yards on 22 carries. Smith, who completed 11-of-19 passing for 143 yards and ran for 25 more, was named Holiday Bowl Offensive MVP. UA's Mark McDonald, who was 8-17 in field goals during the regular season, was a big key with a perfect 3-for-3 day, including a career-long 48-yarder. NU outgained the Cats, but UA won the turnover battle and kicking game.

2008 Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl - Arizona 31, BYU 21

LAS VEGAS-- Arizona capped its best season in nine years with a solid effort against No. 17 Brigham Young, beating the Cougars 31-21 in the Pioneer Las Vegas Bowl.

The Cats took the first lead, set up by a 71-yard pass from Willie Tuitama to Terrell Turner, added a Jason Bondzio 31-yard field goal a third of the way into the second quarter.

Tuitama fumbled a low snap on the first play of the second half and BYU took a 14-10 lead four minutes into the frame with the gift 27-yard drive. After that, Arizona stalled once, missing a 3rd-and-1 opportunity, but turned right around for a defensive three-and-out and two plays later Tuitama's 37-yard pass to Delashaun Dean struck put the Cats back in the lead.

The Cougs fought back with a 12-play, 39-yard drive, but missed a long field goal attempt. Tuitama hit successive passes of 19 and 17 yards, and after a five-yard gain by Nic Grigsby fired one down the seam to a streaking Chris Gronkowski for a 27-yard score, making it 24-14 at the end of the period.

Five minutes into the final period, Wildcat cornerback Marquis Hundley manned up and intercepted BYU's Max Hall in the end zone, taking it out to the UA 18 yard-line. Tuitama led a seven-play, 82-yard drive, sparked by a 27-yard run by Grigsby and a 23-yard pass to Turner, and then ran it in himself from six yards out for a 31-14 lead. Again the Cougars showed some of their 17th-ranked gumption, using eight Hall passes and two of his runs to get into the end zone quickly, and recovered an ensuing onside kick at the UA 48 yard-line. Hall drove BYU 28 yards, but Mitch Payne's field goal attempt banged off the left upright with 2:07 left.

The Cats ran the ball four times and then Tuitama scootched a three-yard pass to Mike Thomas on the final play of the game, giving the latter the Pac-10 career receiving record with his 259th reception as time expired. Dean led UA with seven catches for 88 yards to help Tuitama complete 24 of 35 throws for 325 yards and the game's MVP award.

2009 Pacific Life Holiday Bowl - Nebraska 33, Arizona 0

SAN DIEGO—No. 20 Nebraska showed it was more than two ranking spots ahead of No. 22 Arizona by throttling the Wildcats, 33-0, in the Holiday Bowl.

After developing a reputation for high-scoring games and crazy finishes, the bowl got the first shutout in its 32-year history. Zac Lee threw a 74-yard touchdown pass to Niles Paul in the third quarter to highlight the win, but it was only one moment in a dominating effort.

The coaches expected a defensive game, and the Huskers delivered, earning their first shutout in 46 bowl appearances, plus held UA to 109 net yards. Arizona quarterback Nick Foles was harassed all night and had one of his toughest outings of the year, finishing with nine completions in 30 attempts, for a miniscule 48 yards.

The Wildcats had the ball fourth-and-3 at the Nebraska 8-yard line with 1:41 to go, and eschewed a field goal, with safety P.J. Smith batting down Foles' pass to preserve the shutout. Nebraska free safety Matt O'Hanlon intercepted Foles on the third play from scrimmage and returned it 37 yards to the Arizona 5. Lee scored on a 4-yard run two plays later. It was the fastest score in Holiday Bowl history, coming just 75 seconds in.

Nebraska (10-4) got its first 10-win season since 2003. Nebraska's Alex Henery set a Holiday Bowl record with four field goals, from 47, 50, 41 and 22 yards. Arizona finished 8-5. NU coach Bo Pelini earned bragging rights in Youngstown, Ohio, where he and UA coach Mike Stoops grew up and played at Cardinal Mooney High.

2010 Valero Alamo Bowl – Oklahoma State 36, Arizona 10

SAN ANTONIO—No. 14 Oklahoma State kept Arizona's offense out of the end zone and used four Wildcat turnovers to spoil the Pac-10's first game in the bowl since its early years.

Arizona outgained the Cowboys 370 to 312 yards, holding the vaunted OSU offense some 200 yards under its average. After an initial stop, however, Bug Wright fumbled the first punt of the game and gave OSU a short field for a 26-yard drive and the lead. The Cats were stopped on their next possession and OSU's Brandon Weeden connected on a 71-yard toss to Justin Blackmon to add to the lead.

UA answered with a 63-yard drive to cut it to 14-7. After an exchange of possession a short UA punt set the Cowboys up at midfield and OSU settled for the first of three Dan Bailey FGs. On Arizona's ensuing drive, Nick Foles was intercepted by Markelle Martin and returned 62 yards for a score. Bailey missed the kick and it was 23-. UA took the ball inside the OSU 40 yard-line three times but could not score before halftime.

UA showed some life with an Alex Zendejas field goal in the third quarter to make it 23-10 but OSU answered with its longest drive of the night to make it 30-10. Another Foles' interception near midfield set up a second Bailey field goal. Zendejas missed a 34-yarder minutes later in the fourth period, and Bailey knocked one home again for the final score. UA drove to the OSU 9 yard-line but could not cash in on 3rd- and 4th-and-1.

The Cats had 25 first downs to 17 by the Cowboys, held a 15-minute edge in time of possession but were one for three in the red zone, were sacked five times (to zero for UA), and suffered three interceptions and the fumbled punt for -4 turnover margin.

Receiver David Douglas took home the Fred Jacoby Sportsmanship Award for a 6-catch, 91-yard evening while the bowl offensive MVP award went to Blackmon for eight receptions for 112 yards and two scores, and the defensive MVP honor went to OSU defensive back Martin for his key INT.

Pac-12 Conference, The Conference of Champions

Built on a firm foundation of academic excellence and superior athletic performance, the Conference ushered in a new era on July 1, 2011, officially becoming the Pac-12 Conference with the additions of the University of Colorado and University of Utah.

Just 27 days after the Conference officially changed its named, Commissioner Larry Scott announced the creation of the Pac-12 Networks on July 27, 2011, solidifying a landmark television deal and putting the Conference on the forefront. The Networks, including one national network and six regional networks, in conjunction with four of the nation's largest cable operators, marked the first time a U.S. collegiate conference or any other programmer has launched a collection of networks across a variety of platforms, rather than a sole network. In addition, the "TV everywhere" rights will allow fans to access coverage outside the home on any digital device, including smartphones and tablet computers.

On the field, the Pac-12 rises above the rest, upholding its tradition as the "Conference of Champions" ®, claiming an incredible 119 NCAA team titles since 1999-2000, including nine in 2012-13. That is an average of over nine championships per academic year. Even more impressive has been the breadth of the Pac-12's success, with championships coming in 28 different men's and women's sports. The Pac-12 has led or tied the nation in NCAA Championships in 46 of the last 52 years. The only exceptions being in 1980-81, 1988-89, 1990-91 and 1995-96 when the Conference finished second, and only twice finished third (1998-99 and 2004-05).

For the seventh-consecutive year, the Pac-12 had the most NCAA titles or tied for the most of any conference in the country, winning at least six every year since 2000-01. No other conference has won double-digit NCAA crowns in a single year, the Pac-12 doing so six times, including a record 14 in 1996-97.

Spanning nearly a century of outstanding athletics achievements, the Pac-12 was the first conference to reach 400 championships in 2010-11. With the inclusion of Colorado and Utah, the Conference surpassed another major milestone, with league teams capturing 450 titles, outdistancing the next conference by nearly 200. In all, Conference teams have won 451 NCAA Championships (306 men's, 145 women's).

The Conference's reputation is further proven in the annual Learfield Sports Directors' Cup competition, the prestigious award that honors the best overall collegiate athletics programs in the country. Stanford continued its remarkable run and won its unprecedented 18th-consecutive Directors' Cup in 2011-12. For the second-straight year, six of the top 25 Division I programs were Pac-12 member institutions: No. 1 Stanford, No. 3 UCLA, No. 7 USC, No. 11 California, No. 19 Arizona and No. 24 Oregon. With three teams in the top 10, it was the most of any conference.

The new era of the Pac-12 Conference and 2011-12 campaign kicked off with the Conference's first-ever Pac-12 Football Championship game, pitting Oregon for the North Division and UCLA from the South Division. The Ducks won the inaugural championship game, 49-31, in front of a sold-out stadium (59,376) in Eugene, Ore.

The Conference's nine national titles came in the form of five women's and four men's crowns. Six different league schools claimed NCAA titles and, of the five NCAA institutions to have won multiples titles, three were from the Pac-12.

California, Stanford and USC each won two NCAA Championships. The Golden Bears swept the men's and women's swimming and diving crowns for the second-consecutive year; the Cardinal raised the national championship trophy for the first time ever in women's soccer and added a second-consecutive crown in women's water polo; while the Trojans won their fourth-straight men's tennis and men's water polo crowns.

Arguably the best women's volleyball conference in the country, UCLA brought home the national title, the Pac-12's first in the sport in six years. Oregon also continued its remarkable streak in women's indoor track, winning a third-straight crown. And Arizona won its first baseball crown in over a quarter century as it claimed the Conference's ninth of the year.

In addition to the nine national championships, the Pac-12 also had runners-up in eight NCAA Championship events: women's volleyball (USC), cross country (Washington), men's water polo (UCLA), skiing (Utah), women's tennis (UCLA), women's track & field (Oregon), men's volleyball (USC) and women's water polo (USC). Overall, the Conference had 39 teams finish in the top four at 25 NCAA Championship events.

Participation in the postseason was a common occurrence for the Pac-12 in 2011-12. Of the 22 sports sponsored by the Conference, 14 witnessed at least half its teams participating in NCAA or other postseason action. The men sent 53 of a possible 101 teams into the postseason (52.4 percent), while the women sent 67 of a possible 113 teams (59.3 percent).

The Conference experienced continued success in football as the league sent two teams to BCS Bowl games for the second-straight year. Overall, seven teams went to bowls games. Oregon claimed its 10th Pac-12 crown in the sport, winning the Conference's first-ever Football Championship Game, and claimed a spot in the Rose Bowl. Meanwhile, Stanford (Totitos Fiesta Bowl), Arizona State (MAACO Las Vegas Bowl), California (Holiday Bowl), Washington (Valero Alamo Bowl), Utah (Hyundai Sun Bowl) and UCLA (Kraft Fight Hunger Bowl) also earned bowl bids. Oregon and Stanford were ranked in the top-5 of the Associated Press' poll at season's end, finishing fourth and fifth, respectively.

Conference newcomer Colorado won the Pac-12 Tournament men's basketball title and represented the league in the NCAA Tournament. Regular-season champion Washington and Stanford headed to the NIT where the Cardinal put together an impressive run that resulted in the Pac-12's sixth-ever NIT title. The Huskies advanced to New York City, but fell in the semifinals. The Conference's 10-3 record in NIT play were the most wins ever by Pac-12 teams in the nation's oldest tournament. Washington State narrowly missed out on becoming the third Pac-12 team in four years to capture a postseason title in the College Basketball Invitational (CBI), advancing to the championship series before falling, two games to one.

On the women's side, two teams competed in the NCAA Tournament and five others competed in the WNIT. Stanford made its fifth-consecutive NCAA Women's Final Four appearance after winning its sixth-straight Pac-12 Tournament crown. California made a return to the postseason after a two-year absence. With Colorado and Washington advancing the furthest in the WNIT, Pac-12 teams went 12-4 in the postseason in games against non-Conference opponents.

The Conference has dominated the volleyball field, winning a record 14 NCAA titles in the sport since 1982. UCLA captured its first NCAA title since 1991, while USC advanced to the national semifinals for the second-straight year. Seven Pac-12 teams earned postseason bids, the 12th-consecutive year the Conference has sent at least six teams to the NCAA Tournament.

Arizona won the Conference's 27th all-time NCAA baseball championship in 2012, becoming only the second team in NCAA history to go 10-0 in postseason play. Five Pac-12 teams received NCAA Tournament bids, with UCLA joining the Wildcats at the NCAA College World Series. In addition, Oregon and Stanford reached the Super Regionals, and Oregeon State also represented the Conference in the postseason event.

Without question, the Conference has dominated the softball field, winning 23 national championships in the sport since 1982, most recently capturing six in a row from 2006-11. Eight Pac-12 teams earned NCAA Tournament bids in 2012, including the No. 1-overall seed California. The eight postseason teams were the most for the Conference since 2007. Cal, Arizona State and Oregon punched their tickets to the NCAA Women's College World Series, the ninth time the Conference had sent three teams to the WCWS.

The Pac-12 swept two men's and women's sports, capturing national championships in swimming & diving, and water polo. California took home both swimming & diving crowns for the second-straight year. In water polo, USC was the top men's team for the fourth year in a row, while the Stanford women repeated as national champions.

Pac-12 members have won 306 NCAA team championships on the men's side, 89 more than the next closest conference. Men's NCAA crowns have come at a phenomenal rate for the Pac-12 - 16 basketball titles by six schools (more than any other conference), 53 tennis titles, 45 outdoor track & field crowns, and 27 baseball titles. Pac-12 members have won 25 of 43 NCAA titles in volleyball, 38 of 42 in water polo, 27 in skiing, and 23 in swimming & diving national championships.

Individually, the Conference has produced an impressive number of NCAA men's individual champions, as well, boasting 2,073 individual crowns.

On the women's side, the story is much the same. Since the NCAA began conducting women's championships 31 years ago, Pac-12 members have claimed at least four national titles in a single season on 22 occasions, including the last 12-consecutive years. Overall, the Pac-12 has captured 145 NCAA women's titles, easily outdistancing the SEC, which is second, with 88. Pac-12 members have dominated a number of sports, winning 23 softball titles, 19 tennis crowns, 14 volleyball titles, 14 of the last 23 trophies in golf, and 13 in swimming & diving.

Pac-12 women student-athletes shine nationally on an individual basis, as well, having captured an unmatched 642 NCAA individual crowns, an average of nearly 21 championships per season.

Pac-12 Conference History

The roots of the Pac-12 Conference date back 97 years to December 2, 1915, when the Pacific Coast Conference (PCC) was founded at a meeting at the Oregon Hotel in Portland, Ore. The original membership consisted of four schools - the University of California at Berkeley, the University of Washington, the University of Oregon, and Oregon State College (now Oregon State University). All still are charter members of the Conference.

Pacific Coast Conference play began in 1916 and, one year later, Washington State College (now Washington State University) was accepted into the league, with Stanford University following in 1918.

In 1922, the PCC expanded to eight teams with the admission of the University of Southern California (USC) and the University of Idaho. In 1924, the University of Montana joined the league roster, and in 1928, the PCC grew to 10 members with the addition of UCLA.

The Pacific Coast Conference competed as a 10-member league until 1950, with the exception of 1943-45 when World War II curtailed intercollegiate athletic competition to a minimum. During that time, the league's first commissioner was named. Edwin N. Atherton was Commissioner in 1940 and was succeeded by Victor O. Schmidt in 1944. In 1950, Montana resigned from the Conference and joined the Mountain States Conference. The PCC continued as a nine-team Conference through 1958.

In 1959, the PCC was dissolved and the Athletic Association of Western Universities was formed and Thomas J. Hamilton was appointed Commissioner of the new league. The original AAWU membership included California, Stanford, Southern California, UCLA and Washington. Washington State joined the membership in 1962, while Oregon and Oregon State joined in 1964. Under Hamilton's watch, the name Pacific-8 Conference was adopted in 1968. In 1971, Wiles Hallock took over as Commissioner of the Pac-8.

Ten years later, on July 1, 1978, the University of Arizona and Arizona State University were admitted to the league and the Pacific-10 Conference became a reality. In 1986-87, the league took on a new look, expanding to include 10 women's sports. Since then, the Conference has been considered the premiere league in women's athletics, securing the most NCAA titles in women's sports of any conference nearly every year.

Thomas C. Hansen was named the Commissioner of the Pac-10 in 1983, a role he would hold for 26 years until 2009. Hansen was succeeded by current Commissioner Larry Scott, who took on the new role in July 2009.

During the 2010-11 academic year, Scott helped deliver monumental changes that transformed the Conference into a modern 12-team league. The Conference expanded to add two more teams, agreed to equal revenue sharing for the first time in Conference history, created two divisions - the North and the South, for football only, established a Football Championship Game for the first time ever, secured a landmark media rights deal that dramatically increased national exposure and revenue for each school and established the Pac-12 Network and Pac-12 Digital Network that guaranteed enhanced exposure across all sports.

The University of Colorado accepted its invitation to join the Pac-12 on June 11, 2010, and on June 17, 2010, the University of Utah agreed to join the Conference. The Buffaloes and Utes officially became the 11th and 12th members of the Conference July 1, 2011, the first additions to the league since 1978. During the 33 years between expansions, Conference teams claimed 258 NCAA titles, including 130 women's and 128 men's.

Currently, the Pac-12 sponsors 11 men's sports and 11 women's sports. Additionally, the Conference is a member of the Mountain Pacific Sports Federation (MPSF) in four other men's sports and three women's sports.

The Pac-12 Conference offices are located 25 miles east of San Francisco in Walnut Creek, Calif.

BOWL CHAMPIONSHIP SERIES - When not having a conference champion participating in the BCS National Championship Game, the BCS will have the following conference champions serve as host teams: Rose Bowl - Big Ten and Pac-12; Orange Bowl - ACC; Allstate Sugar Bowl - SEC; Tostitos Fiesta Bowl - Big 12.

Playoff Coming in 2014-15 - On June 26, 2012, the BCS Presidential Oversight Committee agreed to launch a four-team playoff beginning with the 2014-15 season. The new format will continue at least 12 years, through the 2025-26 season. The semifinals will be rotated among six bowl games and will be played either New Year's Eve or New Year's Day. The championship game, to be managed by the 11 conferences and rotated among neutral sites every year, will be on a Monday at least six days after the last semifinal game. A selection committee will rank the teams for the playoff.

Arizona Stadium

One of the finest playing facilities in the country, Arizona Stadium reflects the history and tradition of Arizona football and the overall growth of the University of Arizona campus. Soon, with a new north end-zone football facility, the growth of Arizona Football will continue.

Built in 1928 with 7,000 seats located on the west side between the end zones, the stadium has grown into a 57,000-seat facility that combines tradition with modern conveniences, and remains one of the top venues for its spectators. That improved in 2011 with a new, basketball-court sized videoboard installed in the south end zone, and construction on the new north end-zone facility is expected to be completed in summer 2013.

Every seat features an uncluttered view of the playing surface, and more than half of the seats provide sweeping vistas of the campus and nearby city skyline, as well as the Santa Catalina Mountains. The natural playing field, renewed frequently, is hybrid Bermuda grass for a resilient and fast surface. The natural surface has remained a consistent feature of Arizona Football.

Substantial stadium refurbishing projects within "Vision Arizona," UA's master facilities plan, include the football facility in the north end, with 5,000 upgraded seats, loge seating, an 185,000-square-foot operations center with strength training center, sports-medicine suite, team dining hall, coaches offices, locker room, meeting room and equipment and facility services areas. The $72.3 million complex was subject to approval from the Arizona Board of Regents this past summer. A new monster videoboard was erected for 2011.

Since playing and winning their first game on Oct. 12, 1929 (35-0 vs. California Tech), Arizona football teams have played 481 games in the stadium, 382 of them at twilight or night, winning 293, losing 176 and tying 12. The team has gone undefeated nine times, the last time coming with a 6-0 record in 1993.

UA has enjoyed steady fan support through the years, notably in six of the past seven seasons with 52,000-plus averages.

A stadium record crowd of 59,920 witnessed the Arizona-Arizona State game on Nov. 23, 1996. The highest average attendance for a season was the 56,562 per game who saw the Cats play in 1994. The 2006 average was second-best at 55,798, with four capacity crowds. In 2009, the Oregon game and ESPN College Game Day drew a season high of 57,863.

As Arizona football grew, so did the facilities surrounding it. In 1989, a $6.3 million structure housing the media, skyboxes and loge seating was added. Two other non-football features of the stadium are notable – UA's renowned Tree Ring Research Lab on the west side and the Steward Telescope Laboratory on the east side – two of the nation's most venerated research facilities. The mirror lab is a dozen years old; the tree ring research disciplines will be moving to new quarters elsewhere next year.

The media center is the third press box to service the media at Arizona Stadium. Increased exposure as the program moved into the Pacific-10 Conference outgrew the first two structures. It's the latest in a long line of additions made to the stadium throughout its 82-year history.

In 1938, seats were added between the 25-yard lines on the east side to boost capacity to 10,000. Nine years later, the end zones were filled, and in 1950, the horseshoe at the south end was completed, giving the facility a capacity of 22,671 seats.

That's the way it remained until 1965 when expansion on the west side provided 10,000 new seats, along with an 80-foot, multi-level press box. The two-tier addition to the east stands, adding 17,000 seats in 1976, was selected as one of six outstanding architectural projects in the Rocky Mountain States for 1977 by the AIA. Finally, then-permanent north-end bleacher seating for 4,500 was added in 1988, although it will be replaced for the North End Zone Complex.

Notes: The first game was played in Arizona Stadium on Oct. 12, 1929, with UA beating Cal Tech, 35-0 … The first night game was two years later, Sept. 25, 1931, with Arizona dropping a decision to San Diego State, 8-0.

Selection Process

The Hall of Fame induction committee meets annually to elect the incoming class from nominations submitted by anyone in the UA community. New inductees must receive two-thirds of a quorum of the committee's membership, which must be present at the meeting.

The latest class, to be honored in connection with 2012 Homecoming weekend Nov 10 (Colorado football game) include track and field decathlete Jake Arnold, Clarence L. "Stub" Ashcraft (letterwinner and UA Athletic Events and Facilities Coordinator), gymnast Jenna Karadbil, head coach Rick LaRose, softball player Caitlin Lowe, swimmer Whitney Myers, swimmer Adam Ritter, 2006 National Champion 800 Freestyle Relay Team – Men's Swimming & Diving (Simon Burnett, Lyndon Ferns, Tyler DeBerry, Adam Ritter) and the 2012 National Champion Baseball Team.

Tucson, Arizona

Situated in the heart of Southern Arizona, Tucson is a city of contrast and diversity, from the desert valley of world-famous saguaro cacti to 9,000-foot alpine forests. The city is bountiful in its geographic, cultural and business assets. The population of the greater Tucson area is just under one million.

On any of the 350 days of sunshine per year, the Santa Rita Mountains can be seen some 65 miles to the south, a ridgeline near the Arizona-Mexico border. Nearby Mt. Lemmon, the southernmost ski resort in the United States, affords winter activities on the same day as a golf game or any of myriad recreational opportunities in the area.

The city lies in the Sonoran Desert, which boasts a wide range of wildlife and vegetation. Saguaro National Monument and its world-famous display of giant saguaros, highlights the unique beauty of the area. Tucson is a four-hour drive from Mexico's Gulf of California beaches, 70 miles from Mexico and within hours' drives from several major international bird-watching areas. World-class astronomy facilities on four nearby mountain ranges also attract visitors and specialists alike.

Its first Native American inhabitants and the earliest Spanish settlers to the area have left marks on Tucson. Native American, Mexican and American Southwest influences are prevalent throughout the city. The Mission of San Xavier del Bac, located on the outskirts of town, is one of the original missions built by the Spanish missionaries. Continuously settled for more than 12,000 years – the oldest such settlement in the United State -- Tucson has grown from a small Native American village into one of the Southwestern growth cities of the 21st century. It is one of the premier astronomy and optics centers in the world, an important health services center and home to a renowned research institution in the University of Arizona. Phoenix is a two-hour drive to the north and is home to NBA, NFL, NHL and Major League Baseball franchises.

The University of Arizona and Old Main

Born on 40 acres of land donated by two roughnecks and funded by a $25,000 consolation prize in Tucson's competition for the Territorial capital, the University of Arizona rose from the desert floor of the true old West. Nobody wanted it, and fewer believed it would last. Fortunately, they were wrong, and the bet laid down by saloon-keeper E.B. Gifford, and gamblers Ben C. Parker and W.S. Read on Nov. 27, 1886, has paid off into one of the finest research institutions in the world. When the first 32 students arrived at the only building on campus in 1891, they began a tradition that has now entered its third century.

That building, Old Main, remains as witness to the University's growth from outpost into a 450-acre Research I institution with nearly 200 buildings, more than 38,000 students, and a faculty and staff of 12,000.

Arizona's first university is the largest employer in Pima County and the fourth-largest in Arizona with a payroll of half a billion dollars. The UA offers more than 325 degree fields in a dozen different colleges and another similar group of specialized schools.

Today, the University of Arizona is one of the top 20 research universities in the nation and has played a part in groundbreaking projects ranging from the exploration of Mars to the development of new cancer treatments and pioneering breakthroughs in heart transplantation. UA's observational, theoretical and space astronomy programs have been ranked atop others in the country by the National Science Foundation (NSF) and recent other rankings placed 17 of the school's graduate programs among the top 20 in the nation. In addition, the Nobel Prize, three Pulitzer Prizes and the National Medal of Science have been bestowed upon Arizona educators.

Not to be forgotten, the University's undergraduate programs continue to flourish. The NSF considers Arizona to be one of the 10 universities that best integrates teaching and research for undergraduates. The NASA-funded space grant program pays undergraduates to work in laboratories alongside faculty, and the Undergraduate Biology Research Program includes 43 departments, involves 200 faculty sponsors and funds more than 100 undergraduate researchers each summer. The Eller College of Management and the McGuire Center for Entrepreneurship are rated in the global top 10 by Finance Times. The University was named in an Elite 50 list of institutions for academically-minded athletes last year.

UA's top-notch programs develop top-name graduates who have continued on to success in their respective fields. The UA boasts a laundry list of graduates who have significantly impacted society. From the late U.S. Congressman Morris K. Udall to Joan Ganz Cooney, founder of the Children's Television Workshop, to Emmy Award winning actor/comedian Garry Shandling, UA graduates have made their mark on the world. Other notable ex-Wildcats include film and telelvision producer Jerry Bruckheimer, singer Linda Ronstadt, baseball manager Terry Francona, baseball owner Arte Moreno, the late astronaut Richard Scobee, television fitness personality Denise Austin, noted horse trainers Bob Baffert and Todd Pletcher, brewery CE) August Busch III, former Boston Globe publisher Richard Gilman, and noted national sports broadcasters Steve Kerr, Dan Hicks, Tedy Bruschi and Sean Elliott.

The UA plays host to the world, with students representing all 50 states and 130 countries. A large portion of the student body consists of minority students and the campus is located in one of the most diverse locations in the country, with the influence of Native American and Hispanic cultures evident throughout the Tucson community. The University of Arizona is in its third century of service with a continued commitment to providing support to its undergraduate population, while its world-renown research enterprises keep it on the cutting edge in the expanding global economy.

This commitment to excellence ensures that the University of Arizona will continue to grow from its auspicious beginnings as a single-building outpost in the desert into a world-class center for knowledge and research well into the next century.

University President Dr. Ann Weaver Hart

Dr. Ann Weaver Hart came to the University of Arizona from Temple University, where she served as president from July 2006 until she assumed the presidency of the UA in July 2012. Before then she served as president of the University of New Hampshire and provost and vice president for Academic Affairs at Claremont Graduate University, in Claremont, Calif. At the University of Utah, she served as professor of educational leadership, dean of the Graduate School and special assistant to the president.

Dr. Hart received a bachelor of science in history, a master of arts in history and a doctorate in educational administration, all from the University of Utah. Her research interests include leadership succession and development, work redesign and organizational behavior in educational organizations, and academic freedom. She has published more than 85 articles and book chapters, plus five books and edited volumes.

Dr. Hart is a member of the Board of Directors of the Association of Public and Land-Grant Universities and APLU's Commission on International Programs, which she previously chaired. She previously served on the executive committee of the Board of Directors of the Greater Philadelphia Chamber of Commerce, the boards of Philadelphia's Kimmel Center for the Performing Arts and the Philadelphia African American Museum.

Among the professional and community service awards that Dr. Hart has received are the Jack Culbertson Award in Educational Administration from the University Council for Educational Administration; the Outstanding Professional Award from the Business and Professional Women's Foundation; the PoWeR Award from the Professional Women's Roundtable; the 2009 Champion of Diversity and Access Award from the Urban STEM Strategy Group; and the Outstanding Community Service Award from the Network for Teaching Entrepreneurship.

Dr. Hart and her husband, Randy, have four daughters and six grandchildren.

UA Director of Athletics Greg Byrne

Greg Byrne was named Arizona's 11th Director of Athletics in March 2010. Prior to his arrival at Arizona, Byrne was Mississippi State University's Director of Athletics, where he was the youngest top current athletic administrator in the Southeastern Conference and the youngest to lead an athletic program at the NCAA Division I-A level. He started out his career at MSU in June 2006 as Associate Athletic Director for External Affairs.

He has been around successful athletic programs, and the director's chair, literally all his life. He is the son of long-time athletic administrator Bill Byrne, the recently retired Director of Athletics at Texas A&M University.

Byrne, however, has made a name for himself in intercollegiate athletics. He had 15 years of professional experience prior to assuming the AD's position, a resume that shows progressive growth in both responsibility and achievement. He has been directly involved in raising over $160 million in gifts during his career in athletics.

Byrne was named by the Sports Business Journal to its 2011 class of "Forty Under 40" top sports management leaders in March 2011. He serves as the Honorary Commander for the 305th Rescue Squadron at Davis Monthan Air Force Base.

A native of Pocatello, Idaho, Byrne earned his bachelor's degree in 1994 and his master's degree from Mississippi State in 2009. Byrne is married to the former Regina Misa of Junction City, Ore., and the couple has two teenage sons, Nick and Davis.
